CHARLES T. GARRISON

Charles T. Garrison, Manheim R5, was pronounced dead at 7:20 a.m., Sunday at Lancaster General Hospital about six hours after the car he was driving went out of control and struck a tree along Elizabethtown Road.

State police said Garrison was driving his car east on Elizabethtown Road about 1:45 a.m. The car went off the south berm and struck a tree head-on.

State police, who were assisted by Manheim Fire Company and Manheim Rescue Crew, estimated damage to Garrison's car at $1,200.

Born in Hershey, Garrison was the son of Charles T. Garrison Sr., Marietta, and Shirley Landvater Garrison, Penryn.

A 1974 graduate of Manheim Central High School, he was employed as a mixer in the paint shop of Woodstream Corp., Lititz.

He was a member of Congregational Bible Church, Marietta.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two sisters, Loretta E. and Kathy M., at home; two brothers Stephen R. and Dennis L., both in the U.S. Marine Corps; his maternal grandparents, Arthur and Kathryn Stopfel Landvater, Harrisburg; and his paternal grandparents, Russell and Sahra Derrow Garrison, Hummelstown.

HENRY HAINES

Henry Longenecker Haines, 78, of 11 Center Square, Maytown, died at his home Friday morning.

Born in Maytown, he was the son of the late Henry B. and Miriam Longenecker Haines.

He was the husband of Anna P. Kready Haines, with whom he celebrated his 55th wedding anniversary on September 3.

He was a lifelong member of the Maytown Church of Christ, having served as deacon, elder, trustee, and financial secretary of the church for many years.

He was a graduate of Maytown High School, of Lancaster Business College and LaSalle Extension University. He also attended Millersville State Normal School.

He was a veteran of World War I, having served as a field clerk with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, receiving his discharge in 1919 from Camp AA Humphreys in VA.

He was a charter member of Donegal Post 809, American Legion, which he was instrumental in organizing, serving many years as adjutant.

He retired from the State Fund Division of PA Bureau of Workman's Compensation in 1957 after 20 years of service. He was an accountant.

Although handicapped since 1952, he spent much of his time in hand weaving and remained active in church and civic activities.

He was also a member of Ashara Lodge 398, Free and Accepted Masons, Marietta, for more than 50 years.

Surviving besides his widow is a son, John Edward, Newtown Square; a daughter, Miriam E., wife of the Rev. Vernon H. Baum, York; a sister, Anna Haines Shewmah, Sun City Arizona; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Haines was preceded in death by a son, the Rev. Henry K. Haines, in 1952.

FRANKLIN DUKE

Franklin R. (Dukie) Duke 68, of 401 Eden Road, died at the Duke Convalescent Home at 3:30 a.m., Saturday after a prolonged illness.

He was the husband of M. Leora Martin Duke.

Duke retired in 1966 after 38½ years as a letter carrier for the U.S. Post Office.

He was a member of Bethany United Methodist Church, an honorary member of the administrative board of the church and the Sunshine Bible Class.

He also belonged to the Conestoga Assembly 23, Artisans, Patriotic Order of Sons of America, and the National Association of Letter Carriers. He bowled for many years with the letter carrier group, and was a member of the National Association of Retired Federal Employers.

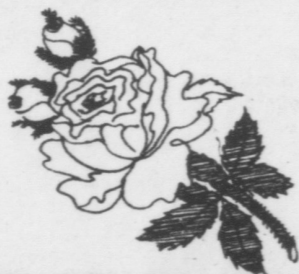

He was a veteran of World War II and served with the U.S. Navy.

The Dukes celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary, September 5.

Born in Lancaster, he was a son of the late Benjamin F. and Belle Dile Duke.

In addition to his wife at home, he is survived by two sons, H. Ernest Duke of Gordonville, and Jere R. Duke, of Mount Joy.

He also is survived by four grandchildren and one great granddaughter.
