Mt. Joy Council names William Bower

Mount Joy Borough Council was asked to approve a waiver of off-street parking for Dr. Ephraim Awad, 75 E. Main St., Mount Joy.

Dr. Awad made the request because he would like to convert a 25X30 foot garage into a veterinary clinic. The borough tabled the request for a month. Council will check with its solicitor and study the ordinances.

Council also appointed William Bower to fill the unexpired term of Ronald Hawthorne who resigned. Mr. Bower is a 29 year-old CPA. He lives on Donegal Springs Road. His term will expire Jan. 1, 1978.

Council also approved a grant contract from HUD for $100,000 to finance the crossroads storm sewer project. Construction of the storm sewers will begin in January and should be completed by April 15.

Small game season

Another surge in PA's fall hunting activities will be recorded with the opening of the early small game season and the season on two species of migratory game birds on Saturday, October 16.

Squirrel, grouse, Wilson's or jacksnipe and woodcock will be the species that can be hunted on that date. Seasons on most of the other small game species open two weeks later.

Squirrels have probably been the most underharvested small game species in the state for a number of years. Ordinarily, about two million bushytails are taken annually in PA, and field reports indicate that there should be an adequate supply of squirrels this year, with local exceptions.

Some concentrations of grouse can be found throughout the state, and hunters this year could again approach the harvest figure of 225,000 birds usually taken yearly in the commonwealth.

Local populations of woodcock and snipe provide stimulating opportunities for hunters, and migrating birds add to the hunting excitement associated with these fine game species. In "average" years, upwards of 200,000 woodcock can be taken by Keystone State hunters.

Six squirrels are permitted to be taken daily by hunters, who may have twelve bushytails in possession after the opening day of the season.
