

County residents who are over 60 can get their chores done free

The Lancaster County Office of Aging Home Chore Program is available to city and county residents 60 years of age and older.

Some of the tasks provided by the Home Chore Program will include: replacing fuses, electric plugs, frayed cords, door locks, window catches; replacing faucet washers or faucets and doing other minor plumbing repairs; repairing broken stairs and floors, patching walls and ceilings; installing hand rails and safety rails for tubs and toilets; installing screens, repairing furniture, installing shades and curtain rods, shampooing and tacking down rugs, moving furniture, washing windows and walls, scrubbing floors, cleaning attics and basements to remove fire and health hazards, minor repairs to the exterior, minor painting, non-expert insect rodent control, bringing in coal, drifting fires and removing ashes, moving trash to collection points, cutting grass, trimming over hanging branches, and clearing walkways of snow and leaves.

The process to use to obtain the service is as follows:

1. Call 397-3787--Housing Development Corporation

2. An employee of the Housing Development Corporation will visit you at your home to evaluate the job and obtain other information.

3. The work is scheduled to be performed within two weeks.

One thing to remember--you must supply all of the raw materials needed to complete the job. The program does not supply any materials, but only the labor.

Millersville College gives antiques course

An introductory course on locating and acquiring antiques is being offered at Millersville State College November 1-December 16.

The course, which will meet Wednesdays, 7-8:30 p.m., is being offered as a non-credit program through the college's Center of Continuing Education. The course fee is $20.

The course will be taught by Henry Kauffman, a retired professor of industrial arts at MSC who is well-known as a master craftsman and as the author of a number of books on antiques and early Americana.

The course, entitled "Antiques Are Where You Find Them," will be an introduction to identifying the nature and quality of antiques and will provide tips on how to locate and acquire antiques at a reasonable cost.

The antique course is among nine non-credit courses being offered during the second cycle of continuing education courses. Other topics include "Psychic Awareness II," "Rockhounding for Beginners," "Colonial Lancaster County," "Understanding India and China," "Collecting Classic Films," "Gourmet French Cooking," "Ballroom Dancing II," and "Beginning Bridge."

Information is available and interested persons may register by contacting the Center for Continuing Education, Millersville, PA
