Social agencies topic of Oct. BPW meeting

Volunteerism was the title of the program for the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club at the regular October session held in Hostetter's Banquet Hall. Five very active local persons explained the functions of the agencies they represented.

Mrs. John Brown, Marietta, spoke of her activities at the Lancaster County Blind Association. Mrs. Herbert Sarver, R.D. #1, Mount Joy, explained the procedure of the Meals on Wheels program. Mrs. Walter Sloan, Donegal Heights, related the importance of "Contact". Dennis Fackler, Rheems, pointed out the need for firemen. The Rev. Dennis Hall, Maytown, described the workings of the Emergency Medical Services. All of the above volunteers, who themselves are involved in many activities of the community, urged everyone present to give freely of their time as volunteers.

Miss Alice Marie Nissley chairperson of the public relations committee, served as mistress of ceremonies and introduced the speakers. Mrs. George Broske led those present in group singing. Members of the PR committee arranged the event. They are: Mrs. Richard Bromer, Mrs. John Eyer, Mrs. Harold Buckley, Mrs. James Evans, Miss Helen Schule, Mrs. Harry Thompson, and Miss Nissley.

Mrs. John Fry conducted the business session and introduced the #VII District Director of Marietta, Miss Naomi Myers, and the assistant Mrs. Michalene Willy, Wrightsville.

Mary Kanoff and Cindy Emenheiser, girls of the month were introduced by Mrs. Michael Baley chairperson of the personal development committee. Mothers of the girls were also guests of the club.

Miss Mary Jane Hoffer received recognition for sponsoring new members.

Mount Joy will hostess for the fall meeting of District VII in Lancaster on October 15, 1977. Mrs. Patrick Crankshaw and Mrs. Arthur Sprecher will serve as co-chairpersons of the event.
