The Mount Joy Library storyhour offered to the pre-school children, 3 to 5 years of age, in the area has been enthusiastically received each year and attended by 35 to 45 children every Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. An approximate total of 35 programs per year are offered from September to May.

The steady attendance by the children is indeed a compliment and the storytellers feel a deep satisfaction and pride with the program and consider it a privilege to work with the children.

Storytellers for the 1976-77 program year are Mrs. Trudy Houck, Mrs. Crystal Fackler, Mrs. Anita Brenner, Mrs. Marilyn Etsell, and Mrs. Dorothy Heilig.

Purpose of our program is to offer pre-school children the opportunity to find personal pleasure in books and pictures that forms the basis of good reading. Weekly visits give a child a chance to explore—to make decisions and some independent selections—a real achievement for him. It develops a sense of pride and accomplishment—laying the groundwork for the best use of books. Story-hour is an unique experience for the pre-school child—opening a new door for him—offering a personal touch and an opportunity to be one of a group that comes together to share the enjoyment of a story. A most exciting time for the growing child.

The library will be open for adult circulation during story hour (9:30 to 10:30)

Tuesday mornings, no parents can take out books while their children are upstairs.

On Thursday the library will open at 2 p.m., instead of 3 p.m., so adults can take out books.

Scouts to hear judge

Clarence C. Newcomer, Judge of the U.S. District Court, Philadelphia, will be the guest speaker at the Lancaster-Lebanon Council, Boy Scouts of America's adult leaders recognition dinner at McCaskey High School, Saturday evening, November 6. The dinner, first to be held since the Council was formed by the merger of the former Lancaster County and Lebanon County Councils in 1971, is expected to attract more than 350 adult Scouters and their wives.

Judge Newcomer is an Eagle Scout from Troop 39, Mount Joy, and formerly served as chairman of the Western District and Executive Board member of the Lancaster County Council.

Highlight of the dinner will be the awarding of the Silver Beaver, the highest award the local council can bestow on adult Scouters from the two-county area.

Winners of the award for distinguished service to youth will not be announced until the awards ceremony at the dinner.

Telephone reservations can still be made for the dinner by calling the Council Service Center in Lancaster, 394-4063.
