"When National Central talks about Free Checking I know they won't have their fingers crossed about what 'Free' means."

"Look, I operate a jackhammer. With me, a rock is a rock. Cement is cement. When it comes to personal checking I expect 'free' to mean 'free'. And that's what I like about National Central's free personal checking account.

"Just take a look. Everything's up front! No service charge for checks you write. No fancy requirements... like you must have a savings account. No minimum balance. And they mean it. You can even borrow money by check. And at the end of the month, all the checks come back listed in order.

"That's not all. National Central 24 Hour Banks let you do your banking day or night... even on weekends. Handy on pay days, too. And there's a plan to help you save automatically."

Chances are if you have a money problem, National Central has a way to solve it. Talk to your Customer Service Specialist about it. At the nearest office of National Central where you're our favorite customer.
