Walter Gingrich wins scout award

A quality control supervisor at Wyeth Laboratories in Marietta has been awarded the Silver Beaver, the highest honor the Lancaster-Lebanon Council Boy Scouts of America, can bestow.

The presentation of the Award for noteworthy service of exceptional character to the youth of Lancaster and Lebanon Counties was the highlight of the Council's adult leaders' recognition dinner at McCaskey High School. One recipient of the Silver Beaver Awards was Walter C. Gingrich, Elizabethtown, quality control supervisor at Wyeth Laboratories and Scoutmaster of Troop 85.

Clarence C. Newcomer, Judge of the U.S. District Court, Philadelphia, was the quest speaker at the dinner. Judge Newcomer is an Eagle Scout from Troop 39 Mount Joy, and formerly served as chairman of the Western District and Executive Board Member of the Lancaster County Council.
