Eight baptisms at St. John's

St. John's Episcopal Church, Marietta, was the setting for eight baptisms on Sunday, November 7th.

The Sacrament of Baptism was administered according to the Book of Common Prayer by the Rev. Aristede S. Red. The parents and the godparents assisted their rector in signing their own children with the Sign of the Cross.

Father Red remarked later in the service that he hoped that this blessing by the parents would be the first of many blessings that the parents would bestow upon their children.

Vickie Dietrick read a message of advice and welcome to the parents and newly baptised while Mr. John Arnold read a message to the Godparents of the same children.

Receiving the order of Holy Baptism were: Brian Keith Albert, Jody Lynn Albert, Shawn Michael Albert, Edward Tracy, and Kathy Lynn Bosley, Michael Bosley, Lisa Marie Bowers, and Helena Marie Roberts. A reception followed in the parish room of the church.

Harvest Home Festival at St. Mark's

by W. Richard Kohler

The members and friends of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will celebrate the Festival of Harvest Home at the Morning Worship Service (10:15 a.m.) on Sunday, November 21st.

The gathered congregation will sing hymns of joy for the abundant harvest, and there will be appropriate litanies of thanksgiving. The Chancel Choir will offer special music, and the pastor, W. Richard Kohler, will preach a message for the occasion.

The chancel will be decorated and filled with canned goods and produce. All gifts will be taken to Simpson House in Philadelphia. Persons are asked to provide canned juices and fruits (commercial), preserves, fresh fruits and vegetables (especially apples and potatoes). In addition, such items as baby powder, Kleenex and soaps are much appreciated and will be put to good use. Items may be brought to the church from Friday (Nov. 19th) on.

St. Mark's Church will be the host church for the Mount Joy Community Service of Thanksgiving at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday evening, November 24. The Rev. Mr. Robert Kettering will be the speaker of the evening. Music by the Chancel Choir of St. Mark's Church.
