

John Fellenbaum

Fellenbaum to score for Moravian

John Fellenbaum of Mount Joy, a freshman at Moravian College, is a member of the basketball team which opens the 1976-77 campaign with Lafayette College of Easton, PA on November 30 at home.

The 6'2", 165 pounder is considered by coach Ted Zawacki as "a freshman with great potential who has a good outside jump shot. He is a good passer and Mrs. Harold Fellenbaum, 30 South Market Street, is a graduate of Donegal High School, where he captained the basketball team and was named most valuable player. He was on the All-County first team, the Wheatland Sertoma All-Star squad and the All-Section III team.

The Greyhounds were 9-3 in the Southern Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference and tied with Franklin & Marshall College for the lead. The team's 18 wins and 8 losses was the best record in the college's history.

Moravian plays a 22-game schedule including participation in the Yule Cup Classic hosted by Montclair (New Jersey) State College.
