Farm Women hold Nov. meeting

Farm Women's society No. 8 met at the home of Mrs Anna Keener, Elizabethtown R.D., November 20, at 2 p.m. President Grace Bixler conducted the meeting, which had a Thanksgiving theme. Singing was led by Mrs. Sylvia Warfel, devotions by Anna Mae Derr. Secretary Mary Grace Martin read the minutes and took the roll. Twenty-one members and two visitors were present.

Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Shuman received a corsage in honor of her and Mr.

Shuman's golden wedding anniversary— before she read the financial report.

A resignation note from Elizabeth Newcomer was read. The Sunshine Committee reported that Anna Wolgemuth is at home and that Lizzie Keener is at The Hamilton Arms in Lancaster.

Ruth Eby read the Finance Report.

Margaret Heisey and her sister Agnes Houseal were chosen to attend the state convention in Harrisburg on January 10 and 11. Kathryn Erb will be the alternate.

Special feature of the meeting was a detailed report by Miss Debbie Hiestand on her work with "Teen Missions" last year in Brazil.

Miss Hiestand illustrated her talk with artifacts used by natives and slide pictures of the work in the minaus area. Miss Hiestand underwent strenuous taining at Merritt Island, Florida, before going to the jungle to clear an air strip. She encountered many dangers, but the mission was accomplished.

Hostesses Anna Keener, Ann Shank, Anna Chapman, Helen Wivell, and Georgianne Forney provided tasty refreshments.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Agnes Houseal, 243 West Market Street, Marietta, on December 11. Mrs. Jay Barnhart will present, "Bread Art."

PVT Michael Rider ends basic training

Marine Private Michael J. Rider, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Rider of Route 1, Mount Joy, Pa., has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruiting Depot, Parris Island, S.S.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1976 graduate of Donegal High School, Mount Joy, Pa., he joined the Marine Corps in January 1976.

Meeting of retired people planned

The next meeting of the Lancaster Chapter #530 AARP will be held on December 10, at the Hellenic Orthodox Church, 64 Hershey Avenue.

Starting at 2 p.m., the famous Les Chanteuse of the Manheim Township High School will provide music.

12 young, talented and pretty young ladies will regale our members with songs of the season.

Guests are welcome.
