Grade school basketball program

Students in grades four, five and six of the Donegal School District are eligible to register Saturday, December 4, 1976, at 12:30 p.m. for the grade school basketball program provided each year by the district. The program will run each Saturday from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Beahm Jr. High School. Immediately following registration at the junior high there will be a practice session. All that is required is sneakers and an interest in basketball.

DID YOU HEAR...

A.I.C. Paul Ackerley was promoted to E.4 Senior Airman in a below the zone promotion. Mr. Ackerley is the son of Robert and June Ackerley, 376 Essex St., Marietta.

DID YOU HEAR...

Tom Spangler, whose bachelor apartment will be on display this week-end for the Marietta Candlelight Tour, will not be at home to act as host. Tom will be in Alaska, wearing lots of woollies, on a job assignment.

DID YOU HEAR...

East Donegal Police Chief Shirk paid a social call on the Susquehanna Times office recently. During the visit, Shirkie's shades disappeared. Did he find them? Or are we still under suspicion?

IGA butchers make Wild West display

The butchers and meat-packers at Stehman's IGA in Mount Joy created a scene from the Old West two weeks ago. To help promote the store's "beef round-up" of bargain priced meats, the butchers built a jail and a display of frontier weapons. The "cowgirl" in the photo above is actually a mannequin. This week, she is a pilgrim.

Host Corral gives $$ to Messiah Home

In the spirit of the season, Host Corral and Host Town, Lancaster, have made donations to charitable organizations in the County.

The Messiah Children's Home, a Brethern in Christ affiliated facility in Mount Joy, was the recipient of $4,500 worth of frozen food donated by the Lancaster Food Plant. Larry Greene, General Manager of the Host Corral and the Lancaster Food Plant, a centralized food preparation operation for the four Host properties said, "The food items were no longer in use on Host menus; all the food donated was excellent," Greene added, "We are happy to be able to contribute these food items especially during Thanksgiving holiday season."

The Big Brothers of Lancaster and their guests were the guests of the Host Town for a Thanksgiving feast, Thursday, November 25. The 25 diners were able to work off the turkey on the Host Town skating rink, bike trail or indoor swimming pool. Jack Hanel, General Manager said, "The Big Brothers Thanksgiving dinner is a tradition at the Host Town that we look forward to each year."

Cop warns Santa about Maytown law

Chief George R. Shirk of the East Donegal Township Police Force would like to remind parents of an ordinance relating to B-B guns. These guns are illegal in East Donegal Township. Anyone causing any vandalism with B-B guns will be prosecuted and the guns will be confiscated.
