Neyer, Seiders sing college performance of the "Messiah"

Two local students performed with the Bob Jones University Oratorio Society and Orchestra in two performances of Handel's "Messiah" during special Thanksgiving week activities on the Greenville, S.C., campus.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Neyer of 306 Birchland Avenue, Mount Joy, is a freshman at BJU. Marilee Ann Seiders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Seiders of Colebrook Road, Elizabethtown, is a freshman at the university. Both students are majoring in music education.

Annual dinner at St. Mark's UM

The members of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will assemble for their annual dinner/meeting on Sunday, December 5th, immediately following the Morning Worship Service (10:15 a.m.). The event will take place in the church's Fellowship Hall. The meeting will be presided over by the Rev. Mr. William Sharp, District Superintendent, who will also preach the sermon at the Worship Service. The election of church officers for 1977 is one of the major items of the meeting agenda along with the consideration of the church's proposed budget for the new year. Reports on the various activities of the congregation during 1976 will be followed by the projection of goals for 1977. The Rev.

Mr. Sharp will carry out the procedures of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church in examining the life and work of the church. He will also challenge the people with the many opportunities for mission. The pastor, W. Richard Kohler, will report to the congregation as will the church's new associate, Miss Sharon Givler.

On December 12th, in the evening, the children of St. Mark's will present their annual Christmas program in the sanctuary. And on Sunday evening, December 19th, the youth of the congregation will present the play, "Bethlehem Alley". Two services will be held on Christmas Eve: the Family Service at 8:00 p.m. and the Traditional Service at 11:00 p.m.
