Self breast exam taught at Norlanco

All women of childbearing age and beyond are invited to a film showing at Norlanco Family Health Center this Monday, December 6 at 7:30 p.m.

The films, loaned by the American Cancer Society, are "Breast Self-Examination" and "For a Wonderful Life".

"Breast Self-Examination" describes this easily-learned technique, first as done by a physician, then by the women performers.

Following the film, a demonstration dummy will be available so that each person attending can try the technique under supervision.

"For A Wonderful Life" features a discussion of why the Pap examination is necessary, shows how it is done, and what the laboratory results will indicate.

Both films are short, allowing time for an informal discussion period.

Barbara Blouch, Physician's Assistant at Norlanco, will be on hand to answer any questions that may arise from the films.

Northwest Lancaster County Medical Association is sponsoring this program as a community health service.
