

Pioneer Co. to teach first aid technique

On December 14, the Pioneer Fire Co., of Marietta, will present a "Community Awareness" demonstration on first aid for foreign body obstruction of the airway. (Blockage of the breathing passages)

According to the National Safety Council, airway obstruction ranks sixth as a cause of accidental death in the United States and accounted for approximately 2,900 deaths in 1974.

Since airway obstruction usually occurs during eating and the holiday season is upon us, the members of the Pioneer Fire Co., felt this would be a very beneficial program to present to the public.

The program will be directed by Assistant Fire

Chief, Stephen M. Bailey, who is also a member of the Marietta Ambulance Crew and a Standard First Aid Instructor for the American Red Cross.

Points covered in the demonstration will be causes, recognition, and treatment of airway obstruction.

There is no cost for the program, and no donations will be asked. The members of Pioneer are offering this program for the benefit and information of the residents of the community.

The demonstration will start at 7:30 p.m., on Tuesday, December 14, 1976 in the company quarters on Waterford Avenue in Marietta.

Donegal Rangers get plate

The Donegal Rangers received a commemorative plate from Frank Fryburg, vice-chairman of the Lancaster County Bicentennial Commission, during the Marietta Candlelight Tour last Sunday. In the foreground are, from left to right; Rangers Dean Bechtold and Dr. William B. Landis with Mr. Fryburg. In the background are, from left to right; Valarie Rieger, Jim Prowell, Brian J. Pennell, Barb Landis, Lucy Shumaker, Dennis Shumaker, and Jim Landis.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor,

For 18 years I have lived in Marietta, I was raised and am employed in Marietta. On Sunday, December 5th the Marietta Restoration Associates held their annual Candlelight Tour.

When this event occurs, not only are the streets of Marietta crowded, but a certain group that attend this tour are disgusting.

My philosophy is to each his own, but when I see two men walking down the street showing affection to each other it turns my stomach.

It was also said that Marietta now has a gay bar. What's next? Is this why we have a Gay Street?

The East Donegal Jaycees have put up the Christmas lights in Maytown Square.

Letter to the editor

Citizens of Maytown

Once again the local Jaycees have decorated our Square for the Christmas season. On Saturday, November 27, they erected the figures, including several new ones they had purchased; installed the lighting; and made the necessary electrical connections.

Though a portion of the cost was paid by our Civic Association, the initiative and work came from these young men; and we commend and thank them for providing for us this fitting reminder of the Christ Child's birth.

Unfortunately — there seems to be a few who do not appreciate this effort. Less than twenty-four hours after its erection, a dozen light bulbs were stolen or broken; as of this time of writing, forty-six bulbs are missing.

As chairman of the Square Committee for the remainder of this year, I have recommended to the Jaycees that they replace none of the missing bulbs, at least not until Christmas Eve. Perhaps the darkened spaces may cause the thieves a sense of remorse and shame.

Mount Joy Jaycees selling mugs

The Mount Joy Jaycees are selling a limited edition (185 copies) of Mount Joy commemorative mugs. The mugs match the recently issued plates.

Of the 185 plates produced, 30 are still available.

The Jaycees have issued the mugs and plates to commemorate their 25th anniversary. The limited edition should soon become collector's items.

Profits from the sale support community projects like Santa's visit, the 75-plus Banquet, the Miss Mount Joy contest, DSA, etc.

To buy a mug or plate, call Bob Stoner at 653-4395, or contact any Jaycee.
