Farm Women elect Mrs. Warren Heisey

Outgoing president Mrs. Lewis Bixler presents the gavel to incoming president Mrs. Warren Heisey.

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Mrs. Agnes Houseal 243 W. Market St., Marietta Saturday, December 11th, at 2 p.m. Grace Bixler, president directed the meeting. The Christmas Story from Matthew ch.2 and additional thoughts were read by Miss Anna Mae Eby in charge of devotional time. She then led the group in the singing of carols.

Minutes of the November meeting were read by Secretary Mary Grace Martin who also took Roll Call. The twenty six members responded by finishing the words, "It wouldn't be Christmas without."

Mrs. Bixler the outgoing President gave words of appreciation for the privilege of serving two years and welcomed Mrs. Kathryn Heisey who will fill her place. A token of appreciation from the Society, was presented by Mrs. Vera Frey, for her faithful services while in office. Vera Frey and Viola Greider passed on words of thanks from Esther Musser and Anna Wolgemuth for remembrances from the Society.

A bit of sunshine will be given to residents of Conestoga View, December 16th, as some members will go there and supervise entertainment.

Mrs. Jay Barnhart 47 Detweiler Ave., Mount Joy presented the main feature as she demonstrated "Bread Art". She showed attractive wreaths, napkin rings, loaves and a beautiful basket which she previously made from dough, with intricate design. She gave the details of the process of forming various pieces needed to interwine, creating a basket and baking it as well. Shellac is applied for the final step to make these decorative pieces which may be used for a long time.

The Houseal home was beautifully decorated for the holidays and each one enjoyed the special food fixed for the occasion. Mrs. William Heisey was co-hostess with her sister.

The next meeting will be held January 15th, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Grace Bixler, Marietta R.D. #1.

Slides will be shown by George Endslow.
