

Vo-tech youths get leadership certificates

Thirteen students from the Mount Joy Vo-Tech School were presented certificates on Tuesday, December 14, for successfully completing the Youth Leadership Program.

Youth Leadership Programs are sponsored by Toastmasters Clubs. John Harnish of the Conestoga Toastmasters Club 1090 was coordinator and he was assisted by Harry Buhay. Following the invocation by Denise Haines, a buffet dinner was served by the Vo-Tech students in the cafetorium.

Student speakers for the evening were Barry Miller, who spoke on "Nacirema," which is American spelled backwards and Denise Haines, who selected "Graduation" as her topic.

Those completing the course in oral communication and leadership training were Ron Smith, Denise Haines, Mitch Drace, Linda Valle, Sally Bomberger, Cathy Strellick, Marge Kline, Phil Miller, Alane Clark, Linda Shenk, Barry Miller, Michael Carroll, and Holly Hoke. All are members of the VICA, FFA, or DECA clubs at the Vo-Tech School.

Serving as officers of the youth leaders were Phil Miller, president; Sally Bomberger, vice president; Michael Carroll, secretary; and Denise Haines, sargent-at-arms.

Early service at Trinity Lutheran

The annual Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy, Christmas Eve Service will begin at 7 p.m., December 24, so that young children can attend and participate in the service. This year the service is being planned by the Trini-Teens, the youth ministry group of the church.

The service will include an explanation of a large creeke scene by Pastor Lester Koder to the children and a children's sermonette by Pastor David Klepper with the children singing "Away in A Manger."

The senior choir will sing a selection accompanied by Miss Beulah Smith at the organ under the direction of Norrell Shields. Mr. George Minick will present the Christmas message. The service will be climaxed by a candlelight service.

Reading participants include: Tammy Duke, Becky Ruhl, Scott Brightbill, Gordon Brightbill, Brian Golden, and Denny Weller.

Others participating are: Jacque Zeller, Lissa Riley, John Day, John Anspach, Jeffrey Duke, Jonathan Ruhl, Mary Ruhl, Wendy Weller, and Jo Beth Sheaffer.
