"When you ask National Central about IRA's, they have the answers."

"Look, they don't have a retirement program where I work. And when it comes to my retirement plans, I don't need simple answers. I need the right answers. Those are exactly what I got from the Customer Service Specialists at National Central... and so will you.

deferred on the amount you save and the interest you earn. "Go to the nearest office of National Central and ask about their 8-page booklet on 'How to Build a Tax-Sheltered Retirement Fund.' Then talk to one of their Customer Service Specialists. You're always their favorite customer."

"In addition to giving you a booklet about Individual Retirement Accounts, they can explain how you can make contributions to your IRA whenever you like (up to $1,500 for an individual IRA, or beginning in 1977, up to $1,750 if both you and your non-working spouse have IRA's). They'll also show you how to have the taxes
