Mother's march on birth defects

The annual Mothers' March against Birth defects sponsored by the March of Dimes begins Sunday, January 16 and continues for two weeks.

The Neighbor-to-neighbor campaign benefits the March of Dimes programs of research, medical service, and public and professional health education. To focus attention on the importance of preventing birth defects, the President of the United States annually proclaims January as "March of Dimes Birth Defects Prevention Month".

The goal of the March of Dimes is to protect the newborn and the unborn. In order to do this the March of Dimes has become deeply involved in the area of prenatal and perinatal care.

The money collected during the Mothers' March will be used locally for genetic counseling services, financial aid to birth defect victims and community health services as well as for public health education on birth defects.

If anyone is interested in helping the March of Dimes in its fight against nation's #1 child health problem, contact the March of Dimes office at 397-6131.
