Dinner held for AMP retirees

Two retiring AMP employees were honored at a dinner party at Mr. Lacy's restaurant last Thursday evening.

Harold F. Schafer began working with AMP in 1915. His first job was at the Mount Joy plant. He was hired as a set-up man and quickly rose to foreman.

His last position was Staff Assistant to the Manufacturing Manager, Connector Products Division.

Gerald E. Mitchell joined AMP's Mount Joy staff in 1956. He has worked in various management positions for the company. His latest position was Materials Supervisor for the Connector Products Division. Before that, he was Plant Manager at Plumb St., Mount Joy.

His son, Gerald Jr., is General Manager of Burger King and lives in Allentown. His daughter, Lynn, is a musical entertainer in Phoenix, Arizona. Gerry and his wife, Dot, plan to move to the Phoenix area in a few months.
