

Marietta Lion's Club meeting

The semi-monthly meeting of the Marietta Lions Club was held at the Colonial Inn. Charles Hershey, District 14-B, Zone A coordinator-chairman, and a member of the Mount Joy club, made numerous informative comments and extended an invitation to the local group to attend a joint meeting on February 7th at the Mount Joy Legion.

At the program sponsored by the Landisville Loins Club, leader dogs will be discussed. Speaker for the joint session will be Miss Grace Kleinhaus, State Leader Dog Representative. She will be accompanied by her leader dog, Bullet.

The next meeting, on February 10, at the Colonial Inn, will be a father and son banquet. An invitation was read from the Marietta Restoration Associates for the Lions to attend the Henry Rutherford Memorial Service on February 15, at 2 p.m. at War Memorial Park.

Robert Cresswell was presented with a lapel pin for services rendered as president, Marietta Lions Club from 1975-76.

A letter of appreciation was read from the Restoration Associates thanking the local Lions for their assistance in the recent Christmas by Candlelight Tour.

The Red Rose Transit Authority informed the club that it will extend its services to include Marietta within the next two or three months. Additional information will be forwarded in the future.
