

Sweet- hearts

by Sharon Funk

Mount Joy's Sweetheart King and Queen contest ends at 7 p.m., Friday, February 11th. There is still time to cast your penny-a-vote ballots for your favorite Sweetheart couple.

At the closing of the contest, the money will be collected and tallied by a bank teller. The boy and girl with the most votes will be crowned King and Queen at ceremonies being held at the St. Mark's Methodist Church fellowship hall, Saturday, February 12 at 10:30 a.m.

Prizes will also be awarded to first and second runners-up. Candidates should arrive promptly at 10:15 for registration.

The Mount Joy Joyceettes, sponsors of the contest, ask all candidates to be present and invite the public to attend. Chairmen for this year's event are Sharon Funk and Deb Newcomer. Assisting them are Harriet Ney and LaVon Harnish. As previously reported, all proceeds will be donated to the Donegal Dental Clinic. A representative from the clinic will be present at the crowning ceremonies to accept the monetary proceeds.
