Kitty Yohn to address CWC

by Hazel Crankshaw

Kitty Yohn, well-known speaker to women's groups, will be heard at the March meeting of the Elizabethtown Christian Women's Club. Hickory Farms will be on hand to feature cheeses, and Fay Leaman, soprano vocalist, will entertain.

Mrs. Yohn has worked with young people as Director of Christian Education in churches in Chicago and Fall River, Mass., and as teacher and Dean of Women at Lancaster Bible College. She is a graduate of Philadelphia College of Bible and Wheaton College, with a B.A. and M.A. in Christian Education. Her lively presentation makes her a favorite after-dinner speaker.

The meeting is scheduled for noon, March 2 at Hostetter's, Mount Joy. Reservations must be made prior to February 25. All ladies of the area are invited to attend. Ladies on the telephone list will be contacted; others may phone their reservations to Mrs. Jean Fullerton, 367-3626.

Pre-school children may be taken to the Mount Joy Mennonite Church for nursery care. Mrs. Mary Sweigart is in charge and provides entertainment for the children.

The February 2nd meeting was well attended. Prizes were given to Mrs. Anna Charles, first-timers, and by Louis Mulhollen and Wanda Lighty.
