

Mount Joy's Sweetheart King & Queen; Chad Ober, Tina Winsett

by Sharon Funk

The 1977 Mount Joy Sweetheart King & Queen were crowned on Saturday, February 12, at the St. Mark's Methodist Church fellowship hall. The King, Chad Ober, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ober, 621 Water Street, Mount Joy and the Queen, Tina Winsett, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winsett, 114 East Main Street, Mount Joy. Tina and Chad each received a $25 savings bond and flowers, compliments of the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes.

First runner-up to the King was Travis Rinehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rinehart, 130 North High Street, Mount Joy. Second runner-up, Kyle McCarty, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCarty, Jr., 129 New Haven Street, Mount Joy.

First runner-up to the Queen was Shannon Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith, 31 New Haven Street, Mount Joy. Second runner-up, Elizabeth Nagle, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Nagle, 1 South Market Street, Mount Joy. Each runner-up was presented a congratulatory gift.

Mrs. Dorcas Knorr, Donegal School nurse, was present to accept a check for $365 to be donated to the Donegal Dental Clinic.

The money was raised when 30 pictures of local children were placed in Mount Joy businesses to elect the 1977 Sweetheart Baby King and Queen by penny-a-vote.

The Dental Clinic treated 76 patients and made 104 visits last year, Mrs. Knorr said. The Joycee-ettes are the largest contributors to the clinic. They have given $2,790 since 1968.

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes, sponsors of the contest, wish to thank the candidates, their parents, and those who helped to make this year's contest a success.

Chairmen for this event were Sharon Funk and Deb Newcomer. Assisting them were Harriet Ney and LaVon Harnish.

King Chad Ober munches the royal cookie while Queen Tina Winsett looks on.

Second runner-up Elizabeth Nagle. Second runner-up Kyle McCarty was unavailable when the photo was taken.

First runners-up Travis Rinehart and Shannon Smith.

Mark Ellicott & Theresa Major crowned at Bethel AME Church

Mark Ellicott and Theresa Major were crowned Junior Valentine King and Queen at the Bethel AME Church in Marietta last week.

Mark, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellicott, won his crown by selling 2,705 votes at a penny a vote. Theresa, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Clarence Major, got 1,925 votes.

King runner-up was Trevor Jenkins (2,554 votes). Queen runner-up was Andrea Waters (1,716 votes).

Senior Queen was Frances Makle, Columbia. Senior King was Eric Stewart, Lancaster. These people were selected by name pulling from a hat.

Georgia Sweeney and Judith Waters were co-chairpersons of the benefit. People attending came from Columbia, Lancaster, and Marietta.

The benefit was sponsored by the women of the church.

Photo shows standing left to right: Trevor Jenkins, Andrea Waters, Eric F. Stewart, and Frances Makle. In the foreground are Mark Elliott and Theresa Major.

Mount Joy Recreation Association holds first meeting

The first meeting of the Mount Joy Recreation Association was held January 31, at the Mount Joy Boro Hall.

The majority of those attending was in favor of organizing various activities that would be made available for persons of all ages in the community. Several suggestions included; arts and crafts, volleyball, ping-pong, shuffleboard, physical fitness programs, handball, softball, racquetball, hiking, and biking.

Committees were also formed to provide the foundation for this organization.

The next meeting of the Recreation Association will be held Sunday, February 27, at 3 p.m., at the Mount Joy Boro Hall.

Membership is now open to any interested person in Mount Joy, and all suggestions are welcome.

DID YOU HEAR...

The Susquehanna Times was too sticky last week. As a result, two men from Marietta met in Denver, Colorado.

James Miley grew up in Marietta, but he now makes his home in Denver. To keep in touch with events back home, he subscribes to the Susquehanna Times. A couple weeks ago, his paper was handdelivered by an old neighbor, Norman Ney.

Mr. Ney, it seems, had also moved to Denver, and he also subscribes to our newspaper. A couple of weeks ago, Norman Ney got two newspapers in the mail. (As we mentioned already, they were a bit sticky that week.) When he pried the two newspapers apart, Mr. Ney was surprised to see that the extra Susquehanna Times was addressed to James Miley.

That is how Norman Ney discovered that James Miley was still his neighbor. Norman and his wife, the former Nan Sargen, delivered the paper to James Miley's door, and the three of them enjoyed a long chat about the good old days in Marietta.

We learned this story from James Miley's aunt, Bess Miley.