St. Mary's fashion show

"Spring '77," will be the theme for the desert-fashion show sponsored by the Women's Club of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Marietta, on Thursday, February 24, at eight o'clock.

"Jacks" of Park City will provide fashions which include sportswear, afternoon and formal wear. The goucho and date dress will be featured. A bridal ensemble will be shown from Pat Mogarts Bridal Salon, Elizabethtown.

Jane Burger will narrate and piano accompaniment will be supplied by Carol Bubacz. Merchants have contributed numerous door prizes and bingo will be played at the conclusion of the show.

Models exhibiting the latest in spring clothes will be Jodie Fahringer, Donna Heysek, Jackie Madsen, Debbie Wood, Karen Oberholtzer, Claire Lavin, Connie McLain, Amy Pickle, Margaret Meszaros, Marcia Moore and Tracy Beichart.

Decor will reflect the spring season: ivy wrapped columns with spring flowers inserts, colorful butterflies and tiny lanterns.

More information may be obtained by calling Joanne Meszaros at 426-3521.

Donna Wetzel wears a 2-piece dress in Polyester and rayon blend. The outfit features a button-down navy jacket with navy and white mitered trim. The mitered-strip effect carries through on the skirt. Donna will be one of the models at the Joycee-ettes fashion show.

Mount Joy Joycee-ettes fashion show

by Cynthia A. Stoner

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes will sponsor a fashion show and card party on March 14th, from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. at the Mount Joy American Legion.

This year's theme is "Swing Into Spring with Fashion", which will combine spring flowers with the latest spring fashions. Fashions for this year's show are being provided by Junior Colony-Fashion Colony of Park City. Models will wear fashion from Junior sizes to Half-sizes. In addition to Joycee-ettes, models will be Dottie Heilig, Lillian Eby, Mary Ellen Kohler, and Mary Gingrich.

Sure-footed Pat Wolf poses at poolside in a natural earth-toned Polyester-cotton dress. The water, at Sylvan Pools in Park City, is only a foot deep, and Pat is an expert swimmer, and she didn't fall in.

Door prizes, donated by various local merchants, will be awarded during the evening and a gift certificate from the Junior Colony Fashion Colony will be raffled off.

Dessert and coffee will be served following the fashion show. After the dessert, a card party will round out the evening's activities. Each group should bring cards or a game of their choice.

Admission is $2.50 per person. All seats are being reserved in groups of four. For tickets call Mrs. Thomas Meckley at 653-4922.

Kim Lauver, an all-American girl, looks like a million Yankee dollars in this red, white, and blue jumpsuit of easy-care Polyester. Patriotic colors are big this year. (We realize it's a black and white picture. Use your imagination.) Kim, the reigning Miss Mount Joy, will be one of the models at the Joycee-ettes' fashion show.
