

Volleyball Marathon at Beahm Jr. High

This is how Junior High students "relax" after ten hours of grueling volleyball. At 1:00 a.m., rock'n'roll was blaring from the speakers and everyone was shouting, dancing, playing cards, or making trains out of chairs. All, that is, except a few...

...who knew how to relax. Students took turns playing and recuperating. The marathon lasted for 32 hours. Teachers volunteered their time as supervisors and referees in 10 hour shifts, and they also manned the concession stand which dispensed hot dogs and cokes to the players.
