Phyllis Shope wins math award

Phyllis Shope of Marietta received honorable mention when Elizabethtown College's Department of Mathematics awarded scholarships to high school students on the basis of their performance in a competitive examination held recently on campus.

More than 30 high school juniors and seniors took the examination, after which many and their parents stayed on campus for a tour, dinner and a basketball game or play, according to Dr. Ronald L. Schubert, chairman of the mathematics department.

Partnerless parents meet

Parents Without Partners will meet at 7:45 p.m., Friday, March 18, at the social hall of the Grace Lutheran Church, James and North Queen Streets, Lancaster.

Mr. Guy Raymond, psychologist, will discuss "Life Planning" (helping people develop meaning and purpose to their existence.)

All single parents, because of death, divorce, separation or unmarried status who have at least one living unmarried child under 21 years of age are invited to attend. Custody of your children is not a factor. More information on the purposes and activities of the organization may be obtained by calling Jane Sumpman at 684-7617.
