Dog dragnet planned

Paul Raber, Marietta's one-man canine control force, warns the public that a dog dragnet will take place next week. Under a new State law, the minimum fine for failure to license a dog is $41.00. Make sure your dog is licensed.

Martha Stauffer to demonstate batiking

Martha Stauffer (Mrs. Kenneth) of Elizabethtown will exhibit and demonstrate the art of batiking to Christian Women's Clubbers at their April 6th meeting. Mrs. Stauffer has been developing her technique over the past three years. She is also known for her macrame work, and is a teacher of this popular craft. Batiking is the art of decorating fabrics with dye, using wax or paste. It is often used for dresses and drapes. Mrs. Stauffer limits her work to pictures.

The William Hartmans of Middleburg, Pa. will be featured in music, and Bill will be the speaker of the day. Mrs. Hartman is well known in Christian Women's Club circles, having served as chairman of the Harrisburg club for a number of years. Bill is a car dealer in the Harrisburg area.

The meeting will be held at Hostetter's, Mount Joy, with nursery at Mount Joy Mennonite Church. Reservations must be made no later than April 1. Checks ($3.25 per person) should be sent to Mrs. Jean Fullerton, R.D. 5, Box 291, Elizabethtown, 17022 (Telephone 367-3626). Information should include number of children to be cared for in the nursery.

Plans are being made for a two-day conference for area Clubs and Councils to be held at the Sheraton Conestoga Village, Route 222, Lancaster, on April 18 and 19. Millie Stamm, National Executive Prayer Chairman and author of Meditation Moments will conduct the sessions. Details will be given at the April meeting.

Harold W. Ney at home

Harold Ney named to E. Donegal Planning Commission

Harold W. Ney of RD #1, Marietta, has been appointed to the East Donegal Planning Commission by the Supervisors. He is replacing Wilbur Fuhrman.

Mr. Ney is one of nine members of the commission, which makes recommendations to the Supervisors on construction in the township.

Mr. Ney has no previous political experience. When asked why the Supervisors chose him, he replied, "I don't know. I guess they needed someone."

Children's films at E-town library

Elizabethtown Public Library presented the first in a series of children's films Tuesday, March 15, at 6:30 p.m. The programs will be held every Tuesday evening through July.

"Our past programs of children's film were very successful. Both children and parents continually ask us when we will have more," stated librarian Susan Bowser. "We hope the current film series will prove as popular. It has been a fine means of promoting the library and book circulation."

Each program will consist of approximately 45 minutes of films. Included in the programs will be cartoons, adaptations of familiar children's stories and books, original screenplays, and old comedies. The comedies, featuring Chaplin, Keaton, Laurel and Hardy, and W. C. Fields, are especially popular. The films are aimed at children between the ages of three and ten.

Admission is free. Listings of the films to be shown are available at the Elizabethtown Public Library, North Hanover and Oak Streets.

SURGICAL APPLIANCE DEPARTMENT

Recently, we installed a complete surgical appliance and convalescent aid department, staffed by two trained surgical appliance technicians.

These technicians, have been thoroughly trained on the proper way to fit surgical garments ranging from elastic stockings to intricate spinal and back braces.

Our inventory includes hospital beds, adjustable or folding walkers, Jacuzzi whirlpool baths, adult and child-size wheel chairs, commodes, wooden and aluminum canes, crutches, and oxygen equipment,—all for sale or rental.

Some of the surgical appliances available are arm, leg and finger splints, bed pads, bed boards, wrist and ankle splints, cervical, hip, or pelvic traction equipment and the very latest in external breast prosthesis.

We welcome your inquiries about these items and if necessary, we can make appointments in the home, hospital or nursing home facility.

Again, our free delivery service is included as a part of this department.
