School ends June 15

The Donegal School Board has set June 15th as the last day of the 1976-77 term. The school will use April 11 as one of its makeup days. The extra days are due to the 2 day strike, 2 snow days, and 3 days by the Governor's edict. Baccalaureate is scheduled for Sunday, June 12th, and Commencement for June 13th.

In other business at Thursday's meeting, the board decided to contact Buchart Architects and Engineers concerning roof repairs at the high school and the heating plant at the junior high school. The Board Committee Annual Building tour was conducted March 10th, with priorities placed on each district building requests as: A - necessary; B - possible long term borrowing or loan issue; and C - can wait or to be done by local custodial maintenance staff. The Board budget review meetings for the 1977-78 budget will get underway Thursday, April 7.

The board awarded I.U. 13 purchasing bids to: L.B. Herr - $5595.31; Kurtz Bros. - $198.08; Clinton Paper Co. - $2426.04; Garrett-Vuchanan - $265.72; Tursch - $312.00.

The total was $8797.05. - to advertise for bids for mowing grass at Grandview, Seiler and W.I. Beahm Junior High again this year, with bids due April 14 to be awarded at the April 21 Board meeting. The board reserves the right to award the bids on separate contracts for each school rather than one blanket contract, to advertise specifications for bidding Donegal's Art, Wood shop, Metal Shop, Lumber Supplies, Custodial Supplies, Light Bulbs with bids due by April 14 to be awarded April 21. The Donegal School Board granted the Mount Joy Borough Authority's request for exemption of taxes in the amount of $490, on recently acquired properties in the Mount Joy Water Improvement Project.
