CARD OF THANKS

With much appreciation from J.J. & his family who wish to extend our most sincere gratitude for all the beautiful people in God's World who have expressed their love and concern during J.J.'s recent emergency. It is so very heart-warming to realize so many folks are genuinely compassionate and empathetic during a period of crisis for another. Our faith was constantly prevalent, but was sustained by the bolstering prayers of relatives and a multitude of lovely friends. Our son has as yet a few more rocky roads to travel, but as witnessed, will surely endure these tribulations with the fortitude and faith only God can instill. We greatly appreciate the many words of courage and the special kindnesses shown our son. To the W.I. Beahm School personnel who have exhibited total understanding and cooperation of J.J.'s unique situation, we are grateful. We especially extend our gratitude to those teachers who've given individual attention to J.J. through their time, words of encouragement and personal visits. Those who care beyond the classroom are certainly to be respected and commended. Again, our sincere thanks to all those who've expressed their thoughtfulness and concern through their many cards, calls, and special kindnesses.

May God bless you all for showing a young man faith in humanity.

Most sincerely,
 J.J. and Mr. & Mrs. Gilmartin
