

Madge Linton poses in front of her prize-winning placemats.

Madge Linton's placemats

Mrs. Norman Linton, Sr., of 204 Birchland Avenue, Mount Joy, could set an interesting table for up to 174 guests if she wanted to. Each guests would have his own conversation piece in the form of a place mat. And each place mat would be different.

Madge Linton's 174 place mats have been collected over the last five years from all over the U.S. and from eight foreign countries. Since they are the paper kind, from restaurants, it is unlikely that she will use them for a dinner. She did use them to win a prize, however.

Madge won a blue ribbon at the Optimist 27th Annual Hobby Show held at McCaskey High in Lancaster last week. Besides place mats, there were vast collections of furs, frogs, salt and pepper shakers, old tobacco tins, and other collectibles. One man brought a grandfather clock made from a dead tree in his yard. Madge had the best place mats.

Her 13-year-old granddaughter, Jill, of Landisville, talked Madge into entering the contest. Jill herself won a second prize for her collection of 103 dolls.

Madge also collects pencils.

Sandy Meckley heads Joyceettes

by Jacquie McCurdy

The Mount Joy Joyceettes held the March membership meeting, March 15, at the Mount Joy Boro Hall. Guests for the evening were Nikki McNece, Tina Walters and Debbie Frey. Jean Germer and Jean Barninger were welcomed into the club as new members.

The annual installation banquet will be held April 2, 1977, at the Sherwood Knoll. Cheryl Hallgren and Sharon Funk are finalizing plans for the Club women's Tea to be held May 15, 1977, at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. The Mount Joy Joyceettes will be collecting for the Cancer Drive in the Mount Joy area March 25 through April 18.

A most rewarding club project is the 75 plus banquet to be held June 9, 1977, at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. The Joyceettes donated $50.00 to the Mount Joy Library.

After the business meeting, elections were held for officers for 1977-78. The following people were elected officers for the 1977-78 term: President - Sandy Meckley; Vice President - Donna Wetzel; Secretary - Jacquie McCurdy; Treasurer - Kathy Bower; Director - Sharon Funk; Editor - Patsy Hoffer; Messiah Home Chairman - Cindy Stoner; and Historian - Sue Thomas.

Used book drive continues

by Sharon Roberts

Have you "dropped off" your used books yet? The Used Book Drive sponsored by the Mount Joy Welcome Wagon Club is on through Saturday, the 26th. Any and all books - paperbacks, hardbacks, cookbooks, craft books, text books, Reader's Digest Condensed Books, etc. will be accepted. It is hoped there will be a good selection at the sale, to be held on April 15th and 16th. The proceeds from the sale will go to the benefit of the Mount Joy Library.

So gather up those books you have already read, the ones in the attic, the closets, the basement, under the bed, and the ones on the bookshelves just gathering dust. Take them to any of the following businesses: Union National Bank, National Central Bank, Dauphin Deposit Bank, First Federal Savings and Loan, Sloan's Pharmacy, Hostetter's Hardware, Jack Horner Shoes, Elm Tree Acres Dairy, Stonebridge Farms Butcher Shop, Clearview Bowling Lanes, Western Auto, Ginder Cleaners, G.C. Murphy's, Root's Distributors, Stehman's IGA or the Mount Joy Library, and deposit them in the "drop boxes" there for the Used Book Drive.

If you have a large quantity of books, or are unable to come to town, phone Judy Novinger 653-2657 or Sharon Roberts 653-103 and arrangements will be made for a club member near you to pick them up.

Donate your books to the Used Book Drive - one, ten, or a hundred books - they will all be appreciated and will be put to good use.

Robert & Debbie Smeal have both passed their EMT exams. They will add a lot to Maytown Ambulance Assoc. in the future. This gives Maytown 6 EMT's at the present time.

Marietta emergency phone numbers

Marietta Police are no longer on duty at all hours. The quickest way to summon police held at any hour is to call the following number:

653-1457.

Both Marietta Boro and State Police can be alerted immediately by calling that phone number. (There is no need to dial "1".)

To get in touch with the fire department, call: 653-2046 at any hour.

You can also dial the operator, but that takes a little longer.

To get an ambulance, call 653-2046.
