

Norelco
12-Cup Drip
Coffeemaker
34<sup>88</sup>

Brews 12 cups in about nine minutes—never boiled or perked so there's no bitter taste. HD5135 Extra Carafe. RP-4.....7.94

HAMILTON BEACH
LITTLE MAC

17<sup>99</sup>

Hostetter Hardware, Inc.

93 East Main Street, Mount Joy, Pa.

Phone 653-1861

VISIT OUR LUNCHEONETTE

Breakfasts, lunches, or dinners are served daily at our pharmacy. We feature delicious home-made soups and a lengthy list of tasty sandwiches and platters and always an everyday special for our economy-minded customers.

We also present a choice of items for the calorie-conscious individual and for the tiny-tot who requires a smaller portion. If it's carry-out service that you are seeking, we will prepare any item on our menu for you to take along.

Our desserts include pies, puddings, cakes, and a long list of mouth-watering sundaes made with Lancaster County's own Pensupreme Ice Cream. For those who want ice cream for home, we maintain a self-service packaged department.

Our food staff is proud of the quality of the food they prepare and serve and urge you to stop by and visit with us during your next trip to downtown Columbia.

Phone 684-2551 or 684-2552. Free delivery to areas receiving Susquehanna Times
 Hours: Mon.-Sat.—8:30 a.m.-9:30 p.m.; Sun.—6 p.m.-9 p.m.

Hinkle's Pharmacies
On the corner since 1893.
 THIRD & LOCUST STS COLUMBIA

Births

Mr. and Mrs. L. Edwin Hixon (Judith Graybill) Mount Joy, R.D. #2, a son at General Hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mower (Naomi Gerber) Marietta, R.D. #1, a daughter at St. Joseph Hospital, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Tucker, (Martha Howbaker) 573 Glen Ave., Mount Joy, a son at Osteopathic Hospital, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rinehart, III, (Betty Baltz) 130 N. High Street, Mount Joy, a son at Hershey Medical Center, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark, (Joyce Rost), Marietta, R.D. #1, a daughter, at Osteopathic Hospital, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Hartzler, (Gwendolyn Witmer), Mount Joy, R.D. #1, a daughter, at St. Joseph Hospital, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, (Ava Longenecker) Marietta, R.D. #1, a Daughter, at General Hospital, Wednesday.

Farm women meet police woman

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Florence Musser, 327 S. Market St., Mount Joy, March 19 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Ella Sensenig had the main feature of the afternoon. She is a Police Woman residing on Mary St., in Millersville. She works part time in the Millersville Borough. She was a Penn Manor High School graduate and had training preparing her for Police duty. She gave timely information on Self Protection for night and day. Her No. 1 defense admonition was; to be alert and use caution whatever the situation.

The meeting opened with Kathryn Heisey, President, in charge. She led the group in singing several songs while Pauline Miller accompanied on the piano. Devotional time was in charge of Ruth Musser who read from Psalm 65. Safety slogans were given in answer to Roll Call. Twenty members and one visitor were present. Mary Grace Martin, Secretary, read the minutes of the February meeting. Ruth Musser reported having given flowers to Mary Reist following the passing of her husband, to Viola Greider and to Elizabeth Witmer who has suffered a fractured shoulder. These were presented in behalf of the Society. Elizabeth Shuman gave the Treasurer's report.

On April 7th some members will be entertained at the United Methodist Church in Quarryville. They will leave from the Mount Joy Mennonite Church.

On April 21st the Farm Women are invited to take in an open meeting at the Farm and Home Center entitled "Our Heritage of Flowers and Plants." The time is 1:30 p.m.

The Spring Rally will be held May 11 at 10:30 in the York Memorial Park.

Mrs. Mary Reist gave words of appreciation for flowers given her during her bereavement.

Hostesses were Florence Musser, Ruth Musser, Esther Musser, and Viola Greider. Delicious desert and snacks were served during the social time.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Endslow, Marietta R.D. #1, April 16th at 2 p.m. Mr. Stanley Dotterer will present an Organ Recital as the main feature.

Show comes to DHS: Mini-sports

DID YOU HEAR...

Richard M. Scott and John D. Krout have made a date to meet two gorgeous girls in the middle of Columbia's Wright's Ferry bridge on Sunday, April 17.

The gentlemen are the mayors of Lancaster and York, and the young ladies are Lyn Grote (Miss Lancaster County) and Sharon Anstine (Miss York County).

The date is the meeting of cooperative March of Dimes walks from York and Lancaster. A brief ceremony will be held in the middle of the bridge, and symbolic red and white roses will be exchanged.

Kenneth Depoe has announced that a Mini Sports Show will be presented in the Donegal High Gymnasium on Saturday, March 26, 1977 beginning at 7 p.m.

Fly rod casting techniques will be demonstrated throughout the program by Cortland professionals. A variety of displays and equipment will be shown and put on sale.

Local taxidermists will display their talents and experts at fly-tying will demonstrate various flies and how to tie them.

There will be a champion turkey caller on hand to instruct in turkey calling.

The techniques used for the yelp, putt, whistle, and the gobble will be demonstrated from 7:45 to 8:45 p.m.

At 9 p.m., a slide show on Stony Creek Valley will be shown. Stony Creek is a wilderness area stream which flows for twenty or so miles beginning at the headwater in the Gold Mine area and flows into the Susquehanna River at the town of Dauphin above Harrisburg. This is by far the largest and most picturesque wilderness area within an hour's drive of this area. It has excellent fishing and hunting. These types of areas must be preserved for future generations.

The program is sponsored by the Donegal High School Fly-Tying Club.

A free-will donation will be requested at the door.

The purpose of this project is to maintain and increase the trout rearing program. It is open to any and all people of all ages.

DID YOU HEAR...

A man once rode a bicycle down the side of the Eiffel Tower. He survived the ordeal. However, another man lost his nose at the bottom when a sugar cube fell from the top and hit it at high speed.

BANK STREET

Storm Sash      Fix-it Shop      Screen Repair

Wood Turning      Furniture Gluing

Bank Street, Marietta 426-3014