

Office of the Aging has seeds

The Office of Aging announce high quality vegetable seeds are now available from the Office of Aging. These seeds, ordered thru the Governor's Anti-Inflation Garden Program, are sold at cost to aid individuals who would like to plant a garden.

Forty cents will buy a packet of seeds containing the following varieties:

Beans, Golden Wax-Yellow Bush; Corn, Golden Bantam; Carrots, Danver 1/2 Long; Radishes, Scarlet Globe; Squash, Zucchini; Lettuce, Grand Rapids; Peas, Triple Treat; Beets, Detroit Dark Red; Turnips, Purple Top White Globe; and Cucumbers, Long Green.

Seeds will be sold on a first come-first serve basis. You do not need to order them ahead of time. Just shop by the Office of Aging after April 21.

A field day for all Office of Aging Senior Centers is planned for April 22 at Lancaster County Park. There will be nature walks, hay rides, singing, and maybe fishing.

Those interested in attending can make reservations by calling Schock Senior Center, 37 E. Main St., Mount Joy, PA 653-8585.
