

The Coffee Crisis

by Chester Wittell

Step forth and mouth your trumpets, boys,
So all the world may know,
And from their bright and shining bells
A lusty fanfare blow;
While Messers Hill and Maxwell House
(Who don't care what the price is)
A straw to break the camel's back
Bring with the latest crisis.

A lexicon says crisis is
A time or turning point
When sickness or emergency
Throws living out of joint.
We take it for a thing that we Must put up with, (I doubt it)
But- right or wrong- it seems to me
We cannot do without it.

Bomb shelters, power shortage, dread
Of nicotine and tar,
The blown-up cost of sugar and
The stuff that moves your car,
Cholesterol, swine flu, the fruit
Of pathological
And syndicated jitters- yours
To name: we've had them all.

Girl Scouts camp

Vo-Tech graphic arts competition

On Wednesday, March 16, 1977 the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) District 5 Competition was held at Dauphin County Vocational Technical School. Schools from 8 counties in PA were involved in the competition and the Opening and Closing Ceremony Team.

Ten Mount Joy Vo-Tech Graphics Arts students won awards in five categories of competition in the annual Susquehanna Litho Club Printing Contest. The awards were presented to the students at the Litho Club's banquet held at the Mount Joy American Legion Hall, March 17th.

Mitch Drace, a junior at Donegal High School and Bill Bitzer, a senior at Donegal High School won second place awards in single color. Drace was also a member of the Opening and Closing Ceremony Team.

Jeff Alexander, a senior at Donegal High School won a second place award in four color process.

Mr. Zerphey, the Graphic Arts instructor at the Mount Joy Vo-Tech, was the guest speaker for the Awards Banquet. His topic was "Youth—A Long Run or a Short Run Product?"

Pig and Rabbit Club meets

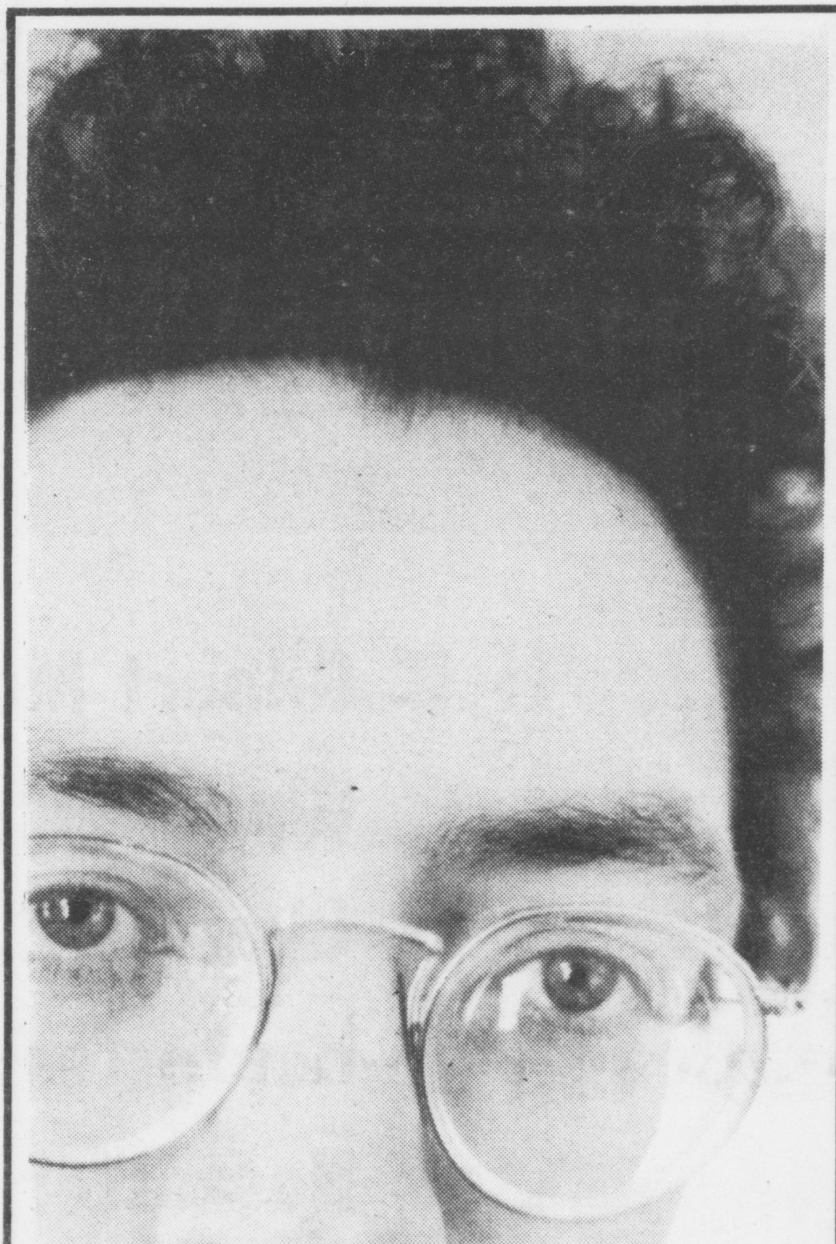

by Bruce Sipling

The Elizabethtown Pig and Rabbit Club had their first meeting of the year on Monday, March 28. The meeting started at 7:30 p.m., at Warren Heisey's house. We elected the officers for the 4-H year. The offices are as follows:

President-Stuart Heisey; vice-president-Bernie Gish; secretary-treasurer - Tom Baum; song leaders-Brian Ebersole and Stanley Heisey; reporter-Bruce Sipling; game leader-Barry Heisey and Scott Sipling and our county council representatives are Tom Baum and Bernie Gish. Our special guest for our first meeting was Jay Irwin.

We talked about getting our projects and the people with pig projects should have their pigs on feed by May 1st. Our next meeting will be held on April 26, at 7:30.
