Party at Riverview

Mrs. Schwert's fifth grade class at Riverview hosted an Easter party on Thursday, April 7. Mrs. Fox's IU13 students were the guests.

The party was held to help fifth graders gain a better understanding of how mentally retarded people are different and alike everyone else. Mrs. Fox spoke to Mrs. Shwert's class about mental retardation prior to the party.

At the party, each child from Mrs. Fox's class was greeted at the door by one of Mrs. Schwert's students. Mrs. Schwert's students introduced themselves and then led their new friends on a hunt to find baskets filled with goodies.

The baskets were made by the fifth graders. Several students decorated the eggs.

After the baskets were found, the children had a party. Some of Mrs. Schwert's students were in charge of serving their guests.

After eating, Mrs. Fox took her students back to her own room. Some of Mrs. Schwert's students came along, and Mrs. Fox led them all in some songs and games.
