Longenecker

Samuel L. Longenecker, who was ordained to the Mennonite ministry and served as chaplain at Dauphin County Prison, died Tuesday at 2 a.m., at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stoner, Bainbridge R1, following an illness of one year. He was 89.

He was the husband of the late Annie Lehman Longenecker.

Longenecker was a member of Steelton Mennonite Church and was the congregation's first Sunday School superintendent. He took an active part in the ministry there until his recent retirement.

His interest in the prison ministry led to his ordination in the Mennonite denomination in 1957. He served as chaplain at Dauphin County Prison and also worked with the inmates at Eastern Penitentiary.

Born near Elizabethtown, he was a son of the late Samuel E. and Susan Lehman Longenecker.

He is survived by six children: Erma L., wife of Herbert K. Maust, Harrisburg; Esther L., wife of Andrew K. Stoner, with whom he resided; A. Lehman Longenecker, Keyser R2, W. Va.; G. Mervin Longenecker, Mesquite, Texas; Harold L. Longenecker, Lewistown, Montana; and Anna Lois, wife of Elmer S. Miller, Philadelphia; 21 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

He also is survived by a brother, Harry Longenecker, Lancaster, and two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Givens, Elizabethtown R4 and Mrs. Susan Hess, Middletown R1.

Mrs. Anna M.
Smith

Mrs. Anna M. Smith, 85, of Pinkerton Road, Columbia, died Tuesday at Columbia Hospital following an illness of five years. She was the widow of Monroe Smith.

She was a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Bainbridge. A native of Bainbridge area, Mrs. Smith resided with her daughter-in-law, Josephine Pickel, Columbia, for the past several years.

Born in Bainbridge, she was the daughter of the late Abraham L. and Amanda Bachman.

She is survived by two sons: George H. Smith, Bainbridge, and James M. Smith, Elizabethtown; and two daughters: Ruth, wife of Thomas Kesselring, Bainbridge, and Nancy, wife of Robert Herr, Elizabethtown; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Frank S. Barton

Frank S. Barton, a welder for Herr and Sacco, Landisville, died Thursday at St. Joseph Hospital after an illness of one year.

Barton was 54 and lived at 587 East Market Street, Marietta. He was the husband of LaDene Hinkle Barton.

He was a member of William Brenner American Legion Post 466, Marietta. He was baptized in the Methodist faith.

Born in Columbia, he was a son of the late Harvey and Mae Haas Barton.

Besides his widow, he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Charles Barton, Ft. Walton Beach, FL; Harvey Barton, Schaefferstown; Mrs. Emma Haverstick, Columbia; John Barton, Mount Joy; Mrs. Oscar Mull, Marietta; Mrs. James Houseal, Maytown, and Clarence Barton, Marietta.

Mrs. MaryEllen
Walter McGavin

Mrs. MaryEllen Walter McGavin, 47, of 231 East Main Street, Mount Joy, died at 4:30 a.m., Saturday at the Lancaster General Hospital following an illness of four weeks. She was the wife of the late John McGavin.

Born in Mount Joy, she was the daughter of Frank B. Walter and the late Freda Burgard Walter. She was employed by Nolt

Pond, Inc., Silver Springs. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Mount Joy.

In addition to her father, she is survived by a daughter, Linda Ryman, of Mount Joy and a brother, Frank F. Walter of Elizabethtown.

John E. Lynn

John E. Lynn, 74, of Bainbridge, died Sunday at St. Joseph Hospital where he had been a patient for the past month. He was the husband of Eleanor Gingrich Lynn.

Born in Bainbridge, he was a son of the late William and Catherine M. Lynn.

A retired merchant, Lynn had a meat market and grocery store in Bainbridge for 22 years. Later he was employed by the Masonic Homes as a truck farmer for eight years.

He was a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Bainbridge, and Bainbridge Fire Company.

Surviving are his widow; a daughter, Dolly, wife of James Engle, Bainbridge; a son, John N. Lynn Jr., Maytown, seven grandchildren; three brothers and a sister: Luther, Elmer and Lizzie, wife of Elmer L. Givens, all three of Bainbridge, and Ernest Lynn, Tucson, Arizona.
