There was a lot of tension backstage before the Beahm Jr. High May Queen contest.

"I'm scared," one potential queen told herself ten minutes before they walked down the auditorium aisle. While their escorts lounged in the hallway, the girls practiced holding their bouquets in the proper manner, adjusted each others' hair, and conversed in low voices.

Finally they were all lined up, ready to run the quantlet of flashbulbs and stares as they walked down to the stage.

One after another they went down and took a seat while the announcer briefly described and complimented them. Once they were all seated, the winner was announced: Dory Hummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Richard O. Hummel, Mount Joy, R.D. #1.

Portner, Brian Brandt, Brian Stoutzenberger and Brian Floyd.

The crowd surged forward while Dory and her escort, Steve Brackbill, stood still for a barrage of pictures. Steve and Dory, who appeared to be holding back tears of joy, then danced the first dance of the evening, and the festivities got underway.

Last year's queen, Lori Thomas, crowned Dory.

Members of the court were Kathy Way, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Way, E. Market Street, Marietta; Rhonda McKain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paris McKain, Birchland Avenue, Mount Joy; Cheryl Detweiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Detweiler, Rivermoor Drive, Marietta, Sue Malik, daughter of Mrs. Sandra Malik, Donegal Street, Mount Joy; Corrine Frey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frey, R.D. #1, Marietta, Cheryl Grim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Grimm, R.D. #1, Marietta, Mindy Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert, Angle Street, Mount Joy; and Mary Ebersole daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ebersole Hopewell Street, Mount Joy.
