FIFTEEN CENTS

School budget approved

The Donegal School Board approved a tentative budget for 1977-78 school year calling for a four-mill increase up to 103 mills. The proposed budget of $4,476,408 is based on the $10 per capita tax, a half of the one per cent wage tax, one-half of the $10 occupational privilege tax and a one per cent real estate transfer tax. Categories included in the budget are: administration, $162,124; instructional, $2,259,591; pupil-personnel, $68,675; health services, $45,045; transportation, $156,020; operation and maintenance of plant, $735,569; and fixed charges, $384,256. (continued to page 2)

Election results

In last Tuesday's primary election, Jere R. Duke, Edgar T. Jones, and Dr. William Landis won the Republican nominations to the Donegal School Board. Gerald A. Barnett, Dr. Jefferson Hartzler, and Edgar T. Jones won the Democratic nominations. Jones will, thus, appear on the ballot on both tickets.

Judging from the above combined party votes for the candidates, Duke, Jones and Landis stand the best chance of being elected to the three open positions on the board.

Mount Joy Council Seat

Russell E. Chapin won the Republican nomination for borough council from the West Ward in Mount Joy by one vote. The vote was Chapin 119, William Bowen 118, and James P. Grady 70.

Marietta, Mayor and Borough Council

Acting Mayor Jay Robert Flanagan defeated Harold Kulman for the Republican nomination for Mayor of Marietta, 128 to 100. However, the two candidates are almost even when Democratic write-in votes are added to the Republican votes. (Both ran on the Republican ticket but got Democratic votes; no one ran on the Democratic ticket.)

Jay Roberts (121, Harold L. McKain (146), and John P. Reuter (147), defeated Robert V. Cresswell (94) and Carl H. Markley (91) for the Republican nominations to three seats on the Marietta Borough Council.

Mount Joy Tax Collector

Emily Lou Foley easily won the Republican nomination for tax collector of Mount Joy with 298 votes. Other tallies were George W. McCue 126 votes, Bruce D. Brown 52, Sandra L. Gingrich 48, Harrietta M. Roberts 40, and Carl M. Leaman 14.

Christine Weidman Gehman won the Democratic nomination over Paul F. Barto, 64 to 59.

Members of Friendship and Florin companies are ready to do battle.

Anything goes in Mount Joy

Mount Joy Recreation Association will sponsor Mount Joy's "Anything Goes" Saturday, May 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Borough Park.

The two Mount Joy fire companies, Friendship and Florin, will be battling each other for the title, "The Greatest Fire Company in Mount Joy."

Events will vary from a tug-of-war to a pie-eating contest.

In the pie-eating contest, the firemen will follow the traditional hands-tied-behind-the-back stance, but a new twist will have the fireman trying to eat a pie while it is moving.

The Recreation Association is a newlyformed community organization which will provide recreational activities for people of all ages in Mount Joy.

The association's objective is to provide a regular schedule of events available yearround for all interested persons.

Charter memberships are still available to anyone who would like to support the Recreation Association's activity program, which will include: softball, volleyball, biking events, a winter activities program, etc.

Post office closed Mon.

All Post Offices will be closed in observance of the Memorial Day Holiday, Monday, May 30, 1977, Postmaster Merv Gutshall announced. There will be no window service and no delivery of mail. Collections will be made from U.S. mailboxes according to holiday schedules.

Jaycee carnival

A carnival featuring fun, stands, rides, food and much more will be held this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday - May 26th through May 28th at the Mount Joy Borough Park. The carnival, an annual event sponsored by the Mount Joy Jaycees is expected to be entertaining for kids both young and old. Stands will be hosted by local and county organizations.

Approximate hours for the carnival will be Thursday 6-10:00, Friday 6-10:00, and Saturday 4-11:00. Come out and have a really good time while supporting your local organizations.
