Michael Kohler wins in voice competition

The Lancaster Opera Workshop held its annual Dorothy Darr Robinson Piano and Voice Youth Contest on Saturday. Judges for the voice competition, held at LOW headquarters, were Ruthanna C. Metzgar, a member of the faculty of Messiah College, and John Darrenkamp, leading baritone with the New York City Opera.

Michael R. Kohler, 18, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Kohler, of 35 E. Main St., Mount Joy, was awarded first place in voice. Kohler is a freshman at Lebanon Valley College, and a student of voice professor Ronald Burrichter. He received $50 and the opportunity for a recital at Millersville State College on June 22.

Landisville
elect new

Samuel G. Davis has driven more than 4,000 miles to attend meetings of the Landisville Lions Club since last fall when he moved for business reasons to Hersey Shore (Pa.). That commuting is coming to an end as Davis turns over the gavel to the newly elected president, Samuel F. Simpson.

Simpson takes office July 1. Other officers elected to serve Landisville Lions for the coming year include first, second and third vice presidents, Dennis G. McGarvey, Rollin C. Steinmetz and Alvie Fetzer. Walter J. Meisky was re-elected secretary, and Charles M. Lond, treasurer and attendance chairman.

Directors include James B. Eshleman, Benjamin L. Greider, Harold R. Shriver and Robert H. Somon. Richard H. Rhen is Lion tamer; Carl Denlinger, tail twister and Henry S. Lehman, chaplain.

Simpson, the new president, lives at 3741 Little Mas Drive, Landisville. He is married, has three children, and is a member of Hempfield United Methodist church. He is employed at Osterlund, Inc., Harrisburg.

The Landisville Lions Club recently celebrated its 35th anniversary. It meets the first and third Monday of each month at the Mount Joy Legion, except for special meetings such as the next one, Monday, June 6, a strawberry picnic at the Landisville home of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Eshleman.
