Farm Women meet

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the Chiques Methodist Church, Mount Joy RD, Saturday May 21st., at 2 p.m. Kathryn Heisey, Society President is in charge. Society No. 27 was entertained at this time.

Mr. Ralph Schneider, from the York area showed many articles he has formed from different varieties of gourds. This has become his favorite hobby and is really a renewal of an old art. Creativity results in many interesting forms, including animals, birds, birdhouses, dippers, sewing baskets, horns and frogs.

Mrs. Ann Shank played a number of songs on the piano, and the group joined her in singing favorite selections. Twenty two members and twenty eight visitors were present; three of these were county leaders.

Devotional time was led by Pauline Miller who read Psalms 33:1-9.

Members introduced guests as Roll Call was taken. Mary Grace Martin, Secretary, read the minutes of the April meeting. Vera Frey gave the Treasurer's Report in the absence of Elizabeth Shuman.

The Communications Committee reported having received a note of appreciation for flowers given her by the Society, during her recent illness in the hospital. She is now recuperating at home.

Vice President Kathryn Erb made mention of a Golden Anniversary date;

June 12th, to be celebrated by Kathryn and Warren Heisey.

Words of greeting were given by Mae Fellenbaum and the other visiting leaders who were taking in the program.

Margaret Heisey told of the interesting trip which twenty-five Society #8 members took recently to Hershey Farm and White Chimneys.

Hostesses providing refreshments were Evelyn Russell, Pauline Miller, Hettie Ginder, Anna Mae Derr, Anna Risser and Ada Kraybill.

The next meeting will be held June 18th. at 2 p.m. in the Lutheran Church, Maytown at which time Christine Erb, a 4H Ambassador to Europe, will be the speaker.

Mount Joy Leisure Club

by Joseph Shaeffer

The Mount Joy Leisure Club held their May meeting recently with 120 members present. The program consisted of an auction, with members bringing articles. The meeting began at noon with Author Braun as the auctioneer. After about one hour, the auction was stopped. The invocation given by Mr. Braun and coffee and cake was served. Following the dessert, President Shaeffer called the meeting to order, with the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

The secretary's report was presented by Anna

Zerphay and the treasurer's report by Almeda Hostetter. Ruth Brandt of the Sunshine Committee reported 12 cards sent to the shut-ins. One new member Mable Andrews was presented to the club. President Shaeffer gave a report on the bus trip to Valley Forge and Plymouth Meeting Shopping Center.

President Shaeffer announced that a bus trip to the Great Adventure Safari Park will be scheduled for Wednesday, June 29. The final plans will be discussed at the June meeting. Members desiring to go on the bus trip will be asked to sign for the trip at the June meeting.

The next meeting will be Monday, June 13 and will begin at 1 p.m. The program will be a home talent show presented by some of the members. The greeters for the June meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank LeVan.

It was decided that the Leisure Club would be represented in the Memorial Day parade.

Following the meeting the auction continued until all the articles were sold. Bus trips are being planned for July, August, September, and October.
