St. Mark's Church

by W. Richard Kohler

They will be accompanied before the assembled congregation by their parents, who will participate with the pastor in the Laying-on-of-Hands Ceremony. Each Confirmand will receive his/her own monogrammed Bible, a gift of the congregation.

On Pentecost, the "Birthday of the Christian Church," (May 29, 1977 is this year's observance) the congregation at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will participate in the Confirmation and Reception into Membership of five of its young people. They are: Sherry Suter, Tina Miller, Joel Sherk, Carl Laudenslager, and John Gibble. For eight months these persons have been a part of the pastor's class and have been instructed in the Christian faith. They have indicated their personal faith in Jesus Christ and their willingness to take the solemn vows of the church.

The Service will include worship materials that will emphasize Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit. A special Men's Chorus will sing "Send Forth Thy Spirit" by Schuetky. The pastor's message is entitled "The Fruit's the Thing!". Members of the church and friends of the Confirmands are encouraged to be present on this memorable occasion.

The Worship Experience will take place at 10:15 a.m. The youth have made their own banners in celebration of the occasion.

A special reading of the memorial roll of the church will also be a part of the Sunday Service on Pentecost.

Glossbrenner

Six young people will be confirmed at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Pentecost, May 29, in the 9:30 a.m. service. Anita Brandt, Michelle Kling, Philip Landis, Maxine Maxwell, Cindy Peifer, and Penny Sumpman will profess their faith and assume their vows of church membership after having shared in a 2-year confirmation preparation experience.

The confirmands will conduct the service. They will share a choric reading, "What It Is to Be a Christian," with the congregation. Maxine Maxwell and Cindy Peifer will sing "Morning Has Broken." During the confirmation ritual, the Chancel Choir will sing "Lord, Make Me An Instrument of Thy Peace" by Wetzler. Bruce Wagner will sing an offertory solo, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled" by Reiff.

The confirmands extend a cordial welcome to all to share in this special moment of their lives.
