Rios family baptized
 —eleven children all at once

St. John's Episcopal Church, Marietta was the setting for the sacraments of Holy Communion and Holy Baptism, this past Sunday. The parish rejoiced in the fact that eleven children of the Mr. & Mrs. John Rios family were welcomed into the life of the Christian community.

Aristede S. Red, Rector, greeted the whole family at the vestibule to signify that he represented the whole Christian community, and that the people anxiously awaited to have the children brought into the church. Father Red greeted the family in the name of the Lord, explaining that in Christ's name they would be baptized and would constitute the one people in Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Rios presented the following children for baptism: John Manuel Jr., Paul John, Margaret Ann, Joan Rachel, David John, Matthew

John, Rachel John, Deborah Guillan, Philip John, Daniel John, and Maryann Guillan.

The Rios family live at 160 E. High St. Elizabethtown, and have attended the Marietta Church for one month. The children range in ages from 4½ to 21 years. Mrs. Rios is a graduate of Millersville State College and Mr. Rios is an artist.

A reception followed the service.

Marietta children's fair June 11

Contributions are being solicited in the Marietta area for the annual children's fair. Food for the luncheon stand, used toys for the toy booth, used furniture, dishes, baked goods, home made candies, cookies, or crafts will be accepted.

The benefit, for the summer supervised playground activities at Marietta Memorial Park, will be held Saturday, June 11. The parade will start at 10:30 a.m. from the square, with music by the Wilbur I. Beahm Junior High School Band. The pet parade will follow the baby parade, with all participants receiving free script when registering (as well as a free lollipop.)

Sponsored by the Marietta Recreation Association, the event will have Sunday, June 12, as the rain date.

Currently 13 boys and girls are vying for the King and Queen contest. Canisters and photos of the contestants may be found in these participating merchants' shops: Herr's Fruit Stand, Youndt's Meat Market, Farmers First Bank, the Market Kart, and Hi Lo Drug Store. Mrs. Robert Henry is arranging an art show and is inviting students to bring her their entries for free prizes. Miss Sandra Pittenturf is parade chairman.

Richard Sloan

Richard W. Sloan, Harold Ave., Mount Joy, received his M.D. from Milton S. Hershey Medical Center Saturday in the school's seventh annual commencement exercises. He will be entering the Family Practice Residency program at Lancaster General Hospital. He earned his B.S. from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science.
