Memorial Day in Mount Joy

An estimated 4,000 people crowded Main St. in Mount Joy to watch the annual Memorial Day Parade. The line of march included 10 bands, 8 floats and many outstanding local individuals.

The outstanding announcer for the parade was John Presto. Judges were Miss Laurie Martin, Mrs. Ginny Horst and Mrs. George Nauman. Prize-winning floats were; 1st place- the Mount Joy Friendship Fire Co. Ambulance; 2d place- Landisville Girl Scouts; 3d place- Mount Joy Vo-tech; 4th place- Mount Joy Recreation Association.

After the parade, the holiday festivities continued at the Boro Park. The major event of the evening was "Anything Goes," sponsored by the newly-formed Mount Joy Recreation Association. Mount Joy's two fire departments, Friendship and Florin, battled each other for the title "The Greatest Fire Company in Mount Joy."

Events in the contest included an obstacle course, 3-legged races, a 4-legged race, balloon burst, crab soccer, inner tube race, pie-eating contest and tug-o-war. About 1000 people turned out to cheer on their favorite teams.

After some grueling work and a lot of fun, the outcome was; Friendship- 98 Florin- 54

Festivities continued with a carnival, and a display of fireworks rounded off the evening.

Twelve grandchildren also survive.

Trinity ECC Bible school

An exciting program has been prepared by Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church for Vacation Bible School to be held June 20 through 24, at Donegal and New Haven Streets, Mount Joy.

"Lord Jesus, Teach Me" is the theme for the school, to be held each weekday from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Classes will be offered for all ages from Nursery (age 3) through college and adult.

The central goal of Vacation Bible School is this: That souls be won to Christ and grow in Christ. Bible-based lessons will be taught with excitement and variety through the use of many advanced teaching methods. Students will be challenged and involved through such activities as these: song time, Bible study, interest visual demonstrations, classroom interaction, craft making, and many other innovative methods in keeping with the theme, "Lord Jesus, Teach Me".

Workers in the school are needed and welcome. For information regarding attending and/or assisting, call Rev. Hess, 653-4435.

Bring the family, friends, and neighbors. There is help (and fun) and spiritual growth for all at Vacation Bible School!

Girl Scouts go camping

On May 13, 14, and 15, Junior Girl Scout Troop #32 of Mount Joy went camping at Gi-Sco-Ha. Gi-Sco-Ha is located in Hanover and is operated by the Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council, Inc.

Highlights of the camping trip were hiking to Codorus State Park, having a Gong Show, and having a big-toe decorating contest.

The girls enjoyed cooking on buddy burners, singing, and participating in a Wide Game focusing on an international theme.

Girls who attended were: Dawn Zimmerman, Dana Yingst, Jody Stoutzenberger, Linda Sherk, Stephanie Maxwell, Stacey Gingrich, Kim Funk, and Jennifer Applegate.

Also Virginia Zuschlag, Colleen Roper, Tracey Mc-

Curdy, Crystal Kelly, Heather Farmer, Emmy Zuch, Stacey Ricedorf, Beth Moran, Wendy Germer, Tracy Geltmacher, and Carolyn Gehman.

Adults that accompanied the girls were Judy Funk, Marlene Zuch, and Joyce Ricedorf. Nancy Kopf and Ella Gainer, leaders for Troop #32, also participated in the trip.

Glossbrenner-Florin Bible school

All children from the ages of 4 years to youth going into grade 9 are invited to share in a one week bible school from June 20-24 given by the Glossbrenner United Methodist Church and the Florin Church of the Brethren at the Florin Church of the Brethren.

Each session will be from 9-12 a.m. and will include bible study, crafts, physical activities, music classes, and guest speakers or religious entertainment programs.

There will be a Kick-Off Registration Fair on Saturday, June 18 from 3-5 for all students and parents.

Featured entertainment for this program will be Steve Brubaker, a well-known magician and ventriloquist. In addition to this entertainment program, children will get a chance to meet the teachers and students in their particular class, and will be invited to share in games and refreshments in the Fellowship Hall.
