

Mount Joy Tennis Club

—titles defended in mixed doubles

Lynn Gerhart and John Birbeck from New Cumberland returned to Mount Joy to successfully defend their title in the fourth annual mixed doubles tennis tournament, sponsored by the Mount Joy Tennis Club.

Gerhart and Birbeck defeated the Mount Joy team of Christine Graham and Bill Houseal, Jr., in an exciting match which was enjoyed by a crowd of spectators. The champions were forced to a three set match after splitting the first two sets, 7-5, 4-6. In the final set they showed great consistency and took the set at 6-1.

To reach the finals the champs defeated Corinda and Frank Zink, 6-0, 6-2; Charles Groff and Mae Greider, 6-1, 6-2; and Charles and Kelly Gohn, 6-0, 6-0. The runners-up defeated Dr. David Schlosser and Marianne Coover, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4; Dave and Ann Mountz, 6-2, 7-5; Asher Neiss and Barb Hallgren, 6-3, 6-4.

The club would like to ask for the cooperation of all tennis players to abide by the rules posted on the gates of the courts and to help the boro by using the trash cans provided by the boro at the tennis courts and ball field.

Historical Society

W. Bernell Heisey presided at the May meeting of the Mount Joy Area Historical Society held in the Borough Hall. Reports of various committees for the Hobby and Craft Show were given and Mrs. Paul Gingrich outlined the plans for the contemplated bus trip to Newcastle, Delaware on June 4th. Albums and scrapbooks of local interest were on display and Mrs. Thomas Cox showed slides taken of the area during the "Show and Tell" portion of the meeting.

Fifty-three exhibitors participated in the Hobby and Craft Show sponsored by the Society the weekend of May 21-22 at the Wilbur I. Beahm Junior High School. The attractive displays include buttons, bottles, ceramics, cats, dishes, bread dough art, hair ornaments, badges, place-mats, dolls, toy guns, toy cars, paintings, gasoline engines, etc. and featured demonstrations of rug hooking, quilting, greeting cards, candlemaking, chair caning and ammunition loading. Joe Shaeffer showed reels of movies taken in and around Mount Joy, circa 1937, and those of the 1951 Centennial Parade and the burning of the Mount Joy Grade School. Displays of Mount Joy items include articles manufactured locally, post-cards of the area, school items, and other local interest objects.

The affair was well attended and the Society is grateful to all the exhibitions, workers and everyone who participated in the event.
