

Photo shows, from left to right: top row, Corinne Frey and Brenda Hershey; 2nd row, Dory Hummel, Roxanne Shank, Maxine Maxwell, and Sue Malik; in front, Mindy Lambert, Cheryl Grimm, and Mary Kline. Georgiann Westerman not shown.

Annual Girls' Gym Club show

The 1977 Girls' Gym Club of the W. I. Beahm Jr. High School will present their eleventh annual show on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday (June 9, 10, and 11) at 8:00 p.m. in the Beahm auditorium.

In preparation for the program, the fifty-five club members have practiced after school hours since April and have also fashioned and made the costumes for each number. Of the fifty-five girls, ten were selected to act as chairmen for the entire club. The chairmen and the directress created the show routines as well as the ideas for costumes and props. Show directress is Mrs. Joyce Zangari and student announcer is Miss Connie Mengel. The chairmen are: Corinne Frey, Cheryl Grimm, Brenda Hershey, Dory Hummel, Mary Kline, Mindy Lambert, Sue Malik, Maxine Maxwell, Roxanne Shank, and Georgiann Westerman.

There is no admission charge, but a donation will be taken to cover the costs of costumes and props.

Since Enjoyment is the theme, the 1977 Girls' Gym Club cordially invites everyone to come and enjoy this spectacular evening of movement and music.

The other Girls' Gym Club members are:

Tish Barnitz, Beth Blake, Cindy Brommer, Anne Boyer, Fawn Cornwell, Kim Derr, Lisa Freed, Tammy Fry, Kim Gainer, Mary Jo Gainer.

Also, Jody Garlin, Sue Gebhart, Brenda Geib, Tracey Geib, Sandy Gestewitz, Terry Good, Donna Hay, Jan Hess, Lisa Hoffman, Michelle Kling.

Pam Linard, Gay McKain, Jean Mark, Patty Meszaros, Gina Mohr, Celesta Mummau, Karen Mummau, Jennifer Mylin, Lisa Nell, Mindy Newlin, Erika Nissley.

Also Karen Noll, Kris Piersol, Cindy Robinson, Jo Beth Sheaffer, Pam Sheetz, Amy Showalter, Toni Shumaker, Lori Simmons, Melissa Sperla, Sherry Suter, Kathy Way, Robin Wittel, and Abby-Zink.

The theme for this year's show is total Enjoyment for all. To carry out this theme, the club has chosen lively music and vibrant costumes as well as exciting dance routines.

Letter

Dear Editor:

On Saturday, June 4, a fair was held at the Maytown Elementary School. It was an old-fashioned fair.

It was NOT the biggest fair; it did NOT have one wheel to put your money on; it did NOT have rides for the children that they could not afford to ride.

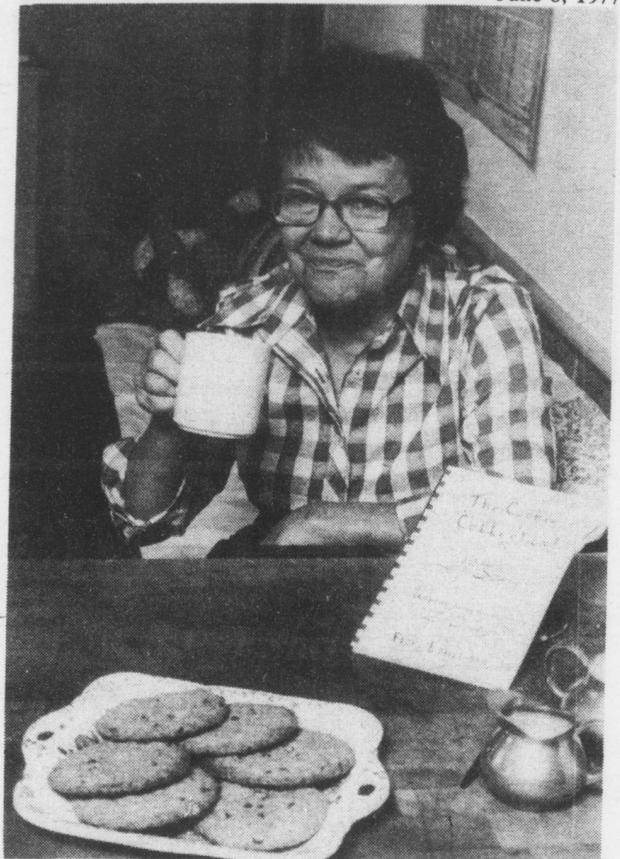

It DID have things for EVERYONE to do that were inexpensive. It did have things to eat that everyone could afford. It did have a large variety of things to buy that even the smallest could afford.

The object of the fair was for everyone to have a good time, together. We feel this objective was reached. Parents, teachers, and students all worked hard to prepare for the fair and to see that everything went well.

A special thank you must go to Mrs. Barbara Lesnfsky, the co-ordinator of the whole fair. She worked long and hard to make the fair just what it was—a fun day for everyone.

Barbara, please accept our sincere thanks and gratitude for a job well done.

The Maytown Parents & Teachers in Partnership

Floy Eshleman in her kitchen near Mount Joy.

Cookies

Floy Eshleman's grandmother baked good cookies. So did her mother. And so does Floy.

After baking and collecting recipes for 30 years, Floy has now written a cookie cookbook entitled, The Cookie Collection! The idea came from friends of her daughter Janine, who lives in New Haven. "Janine would take my cookies up there and give them to her friends. They told her I should write a cookbook," Floy explains. She did, and dedicated it to Janine and friends.

"I'm not the best cookie baker in the county," Floy says. "There are hundreds of excellent bakers around this area." She wrote the book partly for the "sense of personal accomplishment" it gave her, and partly because it was requested.

The cookbook copy was hand-written by Floy. Working from January to March, she selected about 50 recipes for all types of cookies—old and new, PA German and from various countries of the world—and wrote them down. Then she sent it off to the printer and had it turned into a book. The hand lettering gives the book an informal, personal look. Every other page is blank for notes.

Floy had 1,000 copies printed. With the book selling at $3.75 per copy, she thinks she will break even on her investment. You can purchase one at: the gift shop of the Central Hotel, Mount Joy; the Chef's Bazaar in Marion Court, Lancaster; or at the PA Farm Museum's Weathervane Gift Shop in Landis Valley. You can also get a copy in New Haven, or in Ann Arbor, Michigan (where Floy's other daughter lives.)

Reprinted below is a sample recipe that Floy recommended because "this one is a good summer cookie."

Saucer Cookies

Toasted wheat germ is an important ingredient in these large crisp cookies.

Bake at 375 degrees—15 to 17 minutes.

Use creaming method.

½ cup softened butter
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup granulated sugar
1 egg—teaspoon vanilla
Blend in:
¾ cup wheat germ
¾ cup flour
1 tsp. Baking Powder
½ tsp. salt
¼ cup flaked coconut
¼ cup quick oats
½ cup chocolate bits

Place dough by ¼ cupfuls on cookie sheet, 6 inches apart. One batch makes only 10!

P.S.—We tried one. They're good!

Marietta Children's Fair

The annual Marietta Children's Fair will be held Saturday, June 11, at Marietta Memorial Park. The all-day benefit will begin with a baby parade and registration in center square at 10 a.m. To the music of the W.I. Beahm Junior High School Band the marchers will advance east of Market St. to the "S" bend and return. The pet parade will follow immediately.

In the march will be the candidates for King and Queen of the Fair, and the reigning royalty of the '76 event. Miss Sandra Pittenturf, who is arranging the parade, said that all who register will receive a lolly pop and free script to spend at the Fair.

The Fair will commence at noon in the park. Mrs. Sue Thomas and Mrs. Joanne Frymoyer are chairpersons.

The theme of the Fair is TV; yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

Following the crowning of the King and Queen at 1:30 p.m., "The Clown" (with her assistant Dory Price) will supervise games and the children's cake walk. "Full Moon", a popular musical group, will play from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Free popcicles will be available from the Marietta Lion's Club and, at 4 p.m., free prizes will be awarded to lucky persons age 18. A free Savings bond, compliments of the Farmers First Bank, is among the prizes.

A fence art exhibit will be arranged by Sylvia Henry and prizes will be awarded in various age groups.

Supervising personnel will be: games-Marietta Jaycees; Jewelry - Donna Loucks; luncheon - Judy Albert, Mary Eppley, Delores Shannon, and Mary Rose Turnpaugh; pets - Joanne Pittenturf; toys - Claire Lavin and Brenda Gillham; crafts - Sharon Showalter, Lolly Baker and Karen Sullivan; attic treasurers - Hazel Baker and Maryann Spangler; food sale - Betty Pittenturf; Coke and hamburgers - Joyce Shireman, Delores Wise, Bob and Katie Carroll; free giveaway - Vivian Moran; French fries - Pioneer Fire Company Auxiliary; fish pond - Nadine Bailey and Cheryl Bonham; snowballs - Marietta Youth Athletic Association and Bingo - American Legion members.

Profits from the benefit will be used to underwrite the cost of operating the summer playground activities at Memorial Park.

Teen splash

Teen Splash parties will be sponsored by the Mount Joy Lion's Club each Wednesday this summer, starting June 15th. Dances will be held from 8 to 11 p.m., with popular groups such as "Maxwell". In case of rain the dances will be held inside the newly remodeled Lion's Club Activity Building adjoining the pool.

All area teens are welcome. The donation is $2 per person.