

The King and Queen

Marietta Childrens' Fair

Aimee Smedley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Smedley, Jr., was crowned "Queen of the Fair" with 5,915 votes during festivities at the annual Marietta Children's Fair at Memorial Park. The "King of the Fair" was Shane Gillham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gillham with 7,156 votes. Each winner received a trophy and a savings bond.

At 4¢ per vote, the thirteen contestants' total amounted to $339.

First runners-up were Amanda Jo Loucks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loucks with 4,119 votes while Rick Bishop Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Bishop, carried 4,484 votes. They received trophies.

Other contestants received gifts from the Marietta Recreation Association for their efforts. They were Stephanie McKain, David Yowler, J. Raymond Alleman, Jodie Gutshall, Heather Hernandez, Allen Estep, Jr., Kiffany Herr, Joshua Pabon and Betty Jo Felth.

Proceeds from the all day event will be used to underwrite the cost of summer playground activities at Memorial Park. Sponsored by the Marietta Recreation Association, the benefit was arranged by Mrs. Nelson Thomas and Mrs. Dennis Frymoyer.

The parade preceded the Fair.
