Transit fare breaks

The Red Rose Transit Authority (RRTA) announced plans for another day of reduced fares for transit patrons. "RRTA Dime Time", to be held on Saturday, July 2, will feature one way bus trips any where in the City and County of Lancaster on any route in the system at a fare of only ten cents. No transfers will be issued on that day—all transit customers will simply deposit one dime each time they board an RRTA bus. All regular RRTA fare programs (Senior Citizens, Handicapped, etc.) will still be in effect.

Red Rose Transit Authority (RRTA) also announced that a new summer fare policy for school students (grades Kindergarten through 12th) is now in effect. Students may ride all RRTA buses throughout the summer for a 25c fare, plus any zone charges.

(Students used to pay 45c during the summer.) This policy applies to any route, at any time, on any day. Students are requested to carry identification (school ID or other proof of age) in the event of the bus operator has any questions concerning the student's school status.

Any questions regarding these two changes should be directed to RRTA at 825 E. Chestnut Street, Lancaster (397-4246).
