

Taught for 22 years

Anne Bell retires

Mrs. Anne Gramm Bell, a second grade teacher in the Seiler Elementary

School, ended her teaching career this term. She had taught in the Donegal

District for 22 years.

Mrs. Bell began teaching in Brecknoch Township School District as the administrator in a one room school. She taught there for six years. She feels the experience was the best basic education she could have, since it included guidance and janitorial service, as well as teaching the three "R's" to all eight grade students.

"Children haven't changed over the years," says Mrs. Bell, "they are still receptive to learning." Some of the well known methods should be retained, but some new trends in education should be inserted."

A Philadelphia native, she graduated from Marietta High School and Millersville State College. The wife of Clayton F. Bell, she is the parent of one son, Clayton, a teacher in the Hempfield District and also one grandson Ben.

Mrs. Bell is a member of DEA, State and National Teachers Associations, National Retired Teachers and the NRCA, the Mount Joy Business and Professional Womens Club, Donegal Order of Eastern Star, and Associates in Christian Education as an honorary member. She attends the Mount Joy Presbyterian Church, where she taught first and second grades for many years.
