Mount Joy Jr. tennis winners

The third annual Mount Joy Junior Tennis Tournament was held this past weekend.

The 14 and under boy's tennis title was won by the last year's runnerup, Brian Newcomer. Brian's control and steady playing won him the championship over John Crider 6-1, 6-0.

Brian reached the finals by outlasting Fred Straub

6-4, 6-4. Fred Straub won his preliminary round over Dean Brian in what proved to be the closest match of the Tournament 2-6, 7-6, 6-4. John Crider reached the finals playing a very strong match over Alan Brian 6-1, 6-3. Alan got to the semi-finals by outplaying Pat Moran 6-3, 6-0.

The girls' event in the 14 and under was captured by Sherri Kinsey. Her strong strokes were too much for her opponent, Marty Miller: 6-3, 6-3. Sherri reached the finals by defeating Beth Keffer 6-1, 6-4. Marty got to the finals by defeating Nora Motter 6-2, 6-3.

All participants received headbands and the winners and runnersups received trophies. The prizes and trophies were provided by Kenny Smith Sport Shop.

Better Business Bureau opens local office

Lancaster consumers now have another resource in dealing with businesses. The Better Business Bureau of Eastern Pennsylvania has opened a branch office in Lancaster County to deal more effectively with consumer-business relations.

The Better Business Bureau is a private non-profit organization supported by business and professional members. It is dedicated to maintaining high ethical standards in advertising and selling. The bureau promotes good relationships between businesses and consumers, resolves complaints, and also attempts to police a shoddy business operator.

help for consumers

Linda Hollingshead, manager of the Lancaster office, is pleased with the way things have started in their temporary quarters at 900 East King Street. "I am glad to mediate in any disputes," she says. Feel free to call her at 291-1151 if you want information or have any consumer complaints.
