FIFTEEN CENTS

Fireworks exploded over Marietta July 3rd.

Happy Birthday America!

July 4th

Bruce Sutter is a father

As of July 2nd, 1977!

Bruce Sutter, the Mount Joy man who is being called "the greatest relief pitcher of all time" for his work with the Chicago Cubs, recently became a father.

Chad Howard Sutter was born at 7:26 a.m. in Chicago. He weighed 8 lbs., 2 oz.

Mrs. Sutter, the former Jayme Shank of Maytown, said she was tired, but "everything's just great."

Although hospital nurses dressed Chad in a tiny baseball suit reading, "little slugger," Bruce hopes his son will be a doctor some day.

Young and old alike enjoyed the music of High Tide.

Is this the newest fashion fad?—The "frontier look" ala Marietta? Many local people helped the Jaycees advertise the Fourth of July festivities by wearing T-shirts which said, "Get a bang in Marietta."

A reveller at Marietta War Memorial Park during the Independence Day celebrations. The Marietta Jaycees estimated that 20,000 people turned out to see their fireworks on the night of July 3.
