Episcopal Church women

Mrs. Mary Portner and her daughter-in-law, Barbara, were hostesses to the Episcopal Church Women and their families on Sunday, June 26. The lawn was the happy scene for children with their games, while the adults engaged in both church business and pleasure.

The election of officers for the future year was completed. The new slate consists of Mrs. Mary Portner, president; Alice Snavelly, vice-president; Christine Secrest, secretary; and Dorothy Red, treasurer. Dorothy Long, the outgoing president, graciously thanked all the women for their fine support during her tenure of office, and expressed her hope that the women would continue their support to the new officials. The Rector, Aristede S. Red, participated in the meeting and picnic.
